CINERGY FIELD FACTS

GATES OPEN: Cinergy Field opens approximately 1 1/2 hours prior to the start of the game Monday through Friday. Gates open approximately 2 hours prior to game time on Saturday and Sunday. Consult the schedule for game times.

WILL CALL WINDOW: Will Call windows are located near Gate 13 on the west side of Cinergy Field. Will Call opens approximately 1 1/2 hours prior to game times. A photo ID is required to pick up tickets at Will Call.

RAIN CHECKS: If a game is postponed due to bad weather before it is officially completed, the Reds will exchange rain checks for tickets to a future regular season home game in 1997 - subject to availability. Rain checks may be exchanged at Cinergy Field, the Dugout Store, or by mail. See the back of your ticket stub for more information. If a game is postponed, fans will be promptly notified via the stadium public address system and scoreboard.

WHEELCHAIR ACCESSIBILITY: Call the Cincinnati Reds Ticket Department at (513) 421-4510, Ext. 300, for information regarding wheelchair seating at Cinergy Field.

PARKING: Cinergy Field garage - $6.00; outside lots - $5.00; recreational vehicles - $20.00. For additional parking information, please call (513) 352-5432.

FOOD AND BEVERAGES: No cans, glass objects, or alcoholic beverages may be brought into the ballpark. Coolers must be small enough to store under your seat.

CUSTOMER SERVICE DESKS: If you have a question or problem that your usher can't help you with, please stop by one of the Customer Service Desks - on the Blue Level behind aisle 103, on the Green Level behind aisles 206, and on the Red Level behind aisle 350.

CAMERA/VIDEO EQUIPMENT: Cameras are permitted in the ballpark. Video cameras are permitted, but cannot be used to reproduce the game and must not interfere with other fans' enjoyment of the game.

SMOKING POLICY: Smoking is prohibited in the seating and concession areas of Cinergy Field.

EXITING CINERGY FIELD: Once fans have entered Cinergy Field, there are no passes out of the ballpark for re-entry.

FIRST AID ROOMS: Three first aid rooms are located in the stadium - Blue Level behind aisle 104, Green Level behind aisle 250, Red Level behind aisle 324. If you are unable to go to a first aid room, please inform any Reds' employee, who will have the medical staff respond to your locations. (In emergency situations only).

GROUND RULES: Anyone who ventures onto the playing field or into a restricted area, throws objects or interferes with a ball in play will be subject to arrest and prosecution.

EVACUATION: It is very unlikely fans will need to evacuate the stadium. However, in the event of an actual emergency, please exit the seating area immediately upon request and proceed calmly, in an orderly manner to the nearest stadium gate, or follow the directions of Reds' personnel. Reds' management strongly suggests you familiarize yourself with the locations of stadium exits.

EMERGENCY PHONE CALLS: Doctors and others expecting emergency phone calls should leave their seat locations at the Customer Service Desk on the Green Level behind aisle 206. Paging is not permitted.

AUTOGRAPHS: Fans may seek players' autographs from the Blue Level seating area along the railing near the dugouts and field, from the time the gates open until the end of batting practice. Fans with tickets from the Green, Yellow, or Red Levels may "exchange" their tickets at the Green Level Customer Service Desk for a Blue Level pass (while supplies last). On certain special occasions, this practice will be suspended. At the completion of batting practice, fans should turn in their autograph passes at the Green Level Customer Service Desk and have their tickets returned to them. Players are not available for autographs after batting practice or between games of doubleheaders.

MARGE SCHOTT

FRONT OFFICE

President & CEO

Entertainment has been the top priority during Mrs. Schott's tenure as owner of the Reds. A native and sixth-generation resident of Cincinnati, Mrs. Schott was a Limited Partner in the team beginning in 1981, and then became the General Partner of the ownership group on December 21, 1984. She became President and Chief Executive Officer July 8, 1985.

Mrs. Schott has helped bring back the excitement of Reds' baseball to the banks of the Ohio River. She has provided the leadership and financial support needed to build a winning team, while keeping ticket prices among the lowest in the major leagues. The Reds have drawn more than 20 million fans to Riverfront in her 10 years as the club's principal owner. Season ticket sales have reached new team highs.

Mrs. Schott saw her dream come true in 1990 when her Reds went "wire-to-wire" to win the National League Western Division championship and then went on to capture the N.L. pennant, followed by a stunning World Series sweep over Oakland.

Mrs. Schott led the Reds' World Series victory parade at Fountain Square in downtown Cincinnati and she headed the team's contingent honored by President George Bush at the White House following the Series.

In addition to the enjoyment of watching the Reds on the field, Mrs. Schott has had some thrills away from the stadium as well.

In 1989, she had lunch at the White House with President Bush; was a special honoree at a Women in Business luncheon during the President's Inauguration Week festivities; and has made two baseball goodwill visits to Japan, representing Cincinnati and the Reds.

Among other highlights were a 1988 visit to the Vatican, where she presented the Pope with a Reds' jacket; a feature interview on the "60 Minutes" TV show; and a salute by Savvy magazine as the operator of one of the 40 largest businesses in the country headed by a woman.

In December, 1986, she was among 85 women entrepreneurs from all over the country who were honored by President Ronald Reagan at a White House reception. Earlier that year, she was named Woman of the Year by the American Legion Auxiliary at its national convention. Mrs. Schott was singled out for having made significant contributions to community life. She was inducted into the Communiplex Women's Hall of Fame for women in sports in 1987 and received an honorary degree from Maryville College in St. Louis in 1991.

Mrs. Schott was inducted into the Ohio Women's Hall of Fame in November, 1985, for her achievements in business, industry and athletics. A year earlier, she was honored as one of the 1984 Women of the Year in Cincinnati. She is well-known for her role as hostess for the Reds' Rally, a major fund-raiser for the Children's Heart Association at Children's Hospital, and for her work with the famed Cincinnati Zoo. She is the Honorary Chairman of the Zoo's Education Program.

Mrs. Schott became a businesswoman by necessity when her husband, Charles, died in 1968, leaving her in charge of a business empire that included such divergent holdings as an auto agency, cement, truck and brick companies and real estate. She has since added holdings of her own.

It took her three and one-half years to convince General Motors to make her the first U.S. woman ever to be awarded a major metropolitan area G.M. dealership. Later, she became the first woman ever named to the board of trustees of the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Schott is the only woman currently involved in primary ownership of a major league baseball team.

President & CEO

C JOHN ALLEN

Managing Executive

John Allen, who will serve as Managing Executive of the Cincinnati Reds through the 1998 baseball season, was named to his position August 9, 1996.

He had served as the Reds' "Interim Managing Executive" since June 12, 1996, when Reds' President & CEO, Marge Schott, agreed to relinquish her day-to-day control of the team.

Allen has received widespread praise for his innovations in running the club. Baseball fans, baseball executives and the Greater Cincinnati community have responded warmly to his fan-friendly outreach, and to the renewed sense of fun and excitement at Cinergy Field. Ticket sales increased by 16.4% after he assumed the helm, and optimism pervaded the park. Allen was also honored by Cincinnati Magazine in its annual "Best of Cincinnati" issue.

In early January of this year, Allen spearheaded an effort which gave fans in the Cincinnati community an opportunity to enjoy close interaction with the Reds' organization, as the first-ever "RedsFest" took place at the Cincinnati Convention Center in downtown Cincinnati. A crowd of more than 11,000 enjoyed the festivities, which included autograph and photograph opportunities with past and present Reds' players, question and answer panels, and the chance to view Reds' memorabilia.

Allen aspires to "put the focus back onto the playing field," rather than the Reds' front office, or on the business-oriented side of sports. His agenda has included several fan-friendly priorities, including an increase in player contact for fans, decoration of the stadium, ticket & meal discounts, new "fan friendly" programs such as Stand By Your Red, and Run the Bases, and a "Celebration of Diversity" day to welcome and include fans of all backgrounds.

Allen's rise to prominence in the sports world was very rapid, but very well earned. He turned to sports at age 40, following 15 years of business success. He pursued his Master's Degree in Sports Management at Ohio State University.

His first opportunity in the sports industry came with the minor league Columbus Clippers, the triple-A affiliate of the New York Yankees. Allen performed various duties while with the Clippers, including being named as the club's Director of Business Operations, and as he states, "did everything from selling programs to passing out giveaway items."

John joined the Cincinnati Reds' organization as Controller in May of 1995. In June of 1996, team President & CEO Marge Schott ceded her control of the team, naming Allen as the team's Interim Managing Executive, then subsequently recommending him to the National League as Managing Executive through 1998. John had risen from the ranks of minor league baseball, to Managing Executive of the Reds in just over a year.

A native of Norton, Kansas, Allen served in Vietnam, where he was wounded in action, and decorated for his efforts. Following his active duty, John attended college on the G.I. Bill, and earned his undergraduate degree at Kansas State University in 1974.

Prior to entering the sports world, John worked with the accounting firm of Arthur Andersen in Kansas City, and also with G.R.A., Inc. of Merriam, KS, where he was a partner and Senior Vice President.

Since being appointed Managing Executive of the Reds, John has been honored by being presented with the Certificate of Friendship from the Cincinnati Human Relations Commission (7/29/96), and the Community Service Award from the Talbert House (9/13/96). John is on the Kid Glove Committee, and was personally honored on June 24, 1996, when Carlisle, OH celebrated "John Allen Day."

John and his wife, Anna, reside in Covington, KY. John has a son, Christopher, who is currently attending Columbus State College, and a daughter, Sarah, who is a student at North Georgia College. John is a lifetime member of the American Legion and Disabled American Veterans organizations.

Jim Bowden

FRONT OFFICE

General Manager

Jim Bowden, one of the brightest young minds in the game of baseball today, is entering his fifth season as General Manager of the Cincinnati Reds.

After becoming the youngest GM in baseball history (age 31) when he assumed his current duties October 16, 1992, he has helped guide the Reds to first place finishes in the NL's Central division in two of the last three seasons, and has the second-best record (232 wins) of any GM in the National League over the last three seasons - second only to Atlanta's John Schuerholz.

In 1995, at the age of 34, Jim also became the youngest GM in baseball history to guide his club into the League Championship Series.

One of the very best in the game at adding quality veteran performers at the right price, Jim was able to bolster the Reds' roster this past off-season with the likes of OF Deion Sanders, OF Ruben Sierra, and LHP Kent Mercker, while continuing to reduce the club's payroll.

Since his arrival to the Reds, he has proven to be a man of action when it comes to addressing the needs of the club.

Despite suffering through a 1996 in which injuries to top players played a huge role in the outcome of the season, Jim kept the club in contention in the NL Central division by adding such veteran players as all-time saves leader Lee Smith, slugging outfielder Kevin Mitchell, and veteran righty Mike Morgan without increasing the club's payroll.

In the heat of the '95 pennant race, Jim made two blockbuster deals within two days, which brought to the Reds some much-needed starting pitching. David Wells was acquired from the Tigers, and pitchers Dave Burba and Mark Portugal from the Giants. The threesome combined to win 18 games, as the Reds pulled away and finished the season nine games in front of the second place Houston Astros.

During the pennant race of 1994 when catcher Joe Oliver was injured, Jim acquired Eddie Taubensee from the Astros, and one month later, in need of a lead-off hitter, picked up Deion Sanders from the Atlanta Braves.

A man of vision for the future, Jim took a chance late in 1994 and signed Ron Gant, after the slugger had been released by the Atlanta Braves when he broke his leg in a motorcycle accident. Gant went on to hit .276 with 29 homers and 88 RBI in 1995, while earning NL comeback-player-of-the-year honors. Jim turned the trick again in 1996, coaxing Eric Davis out of retirement. Davis enjoyed a solid season, batting .287 with 26 homers and 83 RBI, and was also named the league's comeback-player-of-the-year.

Known for his aggressive nature when seeking talent, Jim has acquired a great number of players through trades, free agency, and waiver claims. Players acquired include the likes of Pete Schourek (2nd in the 1995 NL Cy Young Award voting), Bret Boone (1996 NL's top-rated defensive second baseman), Hector Carrasco and Curtis Goodwin. Jim has also acquired many high profile players during his tenure with the Reds, including Ron Gant, John Smiley, Kevin Mitchell, Benito Santiago, Ruben Sierra, Eric Davis, Jeff Shaw, Dave Burba, Deion Sanders, Roberto Kelly, Tony Fernandez, Jeff Brantley, Lee Smith, and Terry Pendleton.

Jim also takes great pride in showing loyalty to his players, evidenced by the long-term signings of John Smiley, and Jeff Brantley following the 1996 campaign, and Barry Larkin and Reggie Sanders following the 1995 season.

A strong advocate of maintaining a competitive balance within the organization, Jim has continued his efforts in building the club's player development and scouting departments, despite having one of the lowest budgets in baseball.

Jim began his career in baseball in 1984 with the Pirates, and spent 1985-88 as the club's Assistant Director of Player Development and Scouting. In 1989, he moved to the Yankees as Assistant to the Senior Vice President - Baseball Operations. In 1990 he joined the Reds as an Administrative Assistant for both scouting and player development. In August of 1991 he was promoted to Director of Player Development. After being named GM in 1992, he also assumed the duties of President and CEO of the Reds during Mrs. Schott's absence from the club.

A Weston, MA and Boothbay Harbor, ME native, Jim was born May 18, 1961. He's a 1979 graduate of Weston (MA) High School and earned his Bachelor's degree in Business Administration and Communication in 1983 from Rollins College (FL).

Jim and his wife, Amy, reside in Anderson Township, and have three sons: J.B., Tyler and Chad. They also have two dogs: a golden retriever named Brianna Faith and a labrador retriever named Prime Time.

General Manager

1997 Reds Front Office

BASEBALL OPERATIONS

DARRELL (DOC) RODGERS, Assistant General Manager, returned to the Reds' on January 21, 1997, after spending the 1996 season with the Detroit Tigers as their Director of Baseball Administration. Doc was an assistant for the Reds in baseball operations for three seasons beginning in 1993. He spent the 1991-92 season as pitching coach of the Reds' Appalachian League rookie club in Princeton, WV before joining the major league club in December, 1992. Doc spent six seasons as a pitcher in pro baseball from 1985-1990, including three seasons in the Reds' system (1988-90). He will assist Reds' General Manager Jim Bowden in all phases of baseball operations at the major league level, including contract negotiations. Doc is a 1985 graduate from Oklahoma University, with a B.A. degree in journalism, and received his Master's Degree in sports management from O.U. in May of 1994.

GENE BENNETT, Special Assistant to the General Manager, was promoted to his present position in October, 1992. He works with Jim Bowden on special assignments at the major and minor league levels, and also assists in trades, player evaluations and major league advance scouting. Gene has been with the Reds for 45 years. After signing with the Reds as a player in 1952, he began scouting in 1958 and was promoted to scouting supervisor in 1975. He signed a number of big league players, including 1995 NL MVP Barry Larkin, 1988 NL Rookie of the Year Chris Sabo, and former Reds' stars Paul O'Neill, Jeff Russell, Charlie Liebrandt, and many others. Gene received the TOPPS Scout of the Month award 12 times, and in 1988 received the TOPPS All-Star Scout award. In 1993, he was elected to the Ohio High School Athletics Association Sports Hall of Fame, and in 1996, was elected to the Baseball Scouts Hall of Fame sponsored by the Middle Atlantic Major League Baseball Scouts Association. Gene and his wife, Loretta, have a son (David), a daughter (Cathy), and four grandchildren.

JACK McKEON, Senior Advisor/Player Personnel, is in his 47th year in baseball and his fifth with the Reds. He was named to his current position on January 6, 1993. He works with Jim Bowden on special assignments at the major and minor league levels, and also assists in trades, player evaluations and is responsible for American League coverage. Jack managed the Kansas City Royals (1973-75), Oakland A's (1977-78) and the San Diego Padres (1988-90). McKeon served as the Padres' General Manager from 1980-1990. As a manager in San Diego, he compiled the best career winning percentage (.541) of any Padre skipper. He also managed 17 years in the minors. McKeon is a graduate of Elon (NC) College. Jack and his wife Carol have four children (Kristi, Kelly, Kori, Kasey) and nine grandchildren.

LARRY BARTON JR., Director/Baseball Operations, was named to his current position on November 1, 1993. Larry enters his 31st year in pro ball, and 28th with the Reds. He has worked as an area scout, national cross checker, and also managed the Billings club in 1984. Larry has been responsible for signing a number of big league players, including Eric Davis, Mike LaCoss, Paul Moskau, Frank Pastore, Joe Price and Kurt Stillwell. He resides in Fontana, California. His son, Jeff, is a cross-checker in the Reds' scouting department. His father, Larry Sr., also scouted for the Reds following a successful minor league playing career.

AL GOLDIS, Senior Director/Scouting and Player Development, was named to his current position on October 18, 1996, after spending the past two seasons as Special Assistant to the General Manager for the Cubs. Al, 53, will oversee both scouting and player development - a role similar to what he's held with the Chicago Cubs, Milwaukee Brewers, and Chicago White Sox over the last 10 years. During his tenure with those clubs, he was directly responsible for drafting and signing such players as Frank Thomas, Jack McDowell, Dante Bichette, Robin Ventura, and Alex Fernandez. Al began his pro playing career in 1963, after signing with the Reds. He would spend four years in the club's minor league system. Following his playing career, Al scouted for Baltimore, and California, before being named Director of Scouting and Player Development for the White Sox in 1986. Al and his wife, Linda, have four children: Joshua (23), Eric (21), Randi (23), and Allison (22).

SHELDON (CHIEF) BENDER, Director of Player Development, is in his 55th year in professional baseball and his 30th season with the Reds. This past December, Chief was honored by the National Association when he was named "King of Baseball" for his longtime service and dedication to the game. Chief headed the Reds' minor league operations for most of the period from 1967 to 1989, first as Director of Player Development, then as Vice President/Player Personnel beginning in 1978. Bender was named Special Player Consultant in January, 1990, before being named to his current position in October, 1992. He played and managed in the minor leagues for 12 seasons and was in the St. Louis Cardinals' organization from 1948-66 prior to joining the Reds. Chief and his wife Dorothea have a son, Jim, and two grandchildren, Eric and Martha.

JULIAN MOCK, Director of Scouting, was named to his current position in January, 1990, after 21 years of scouting for the Reds. Julian is a native of Selma, AL and a graduate of Auburn University, where he played baseball, and earned Master's degrees in school administration and physical education. Julian was a high school baseball coach in Atlanta from 1953-64. His teams won two state championships and twice he was named Coach of the Year in Georgia. Since taking over as Director of Scouting in 1990, the Reds have drafted such prospects as Steve Gibralter, Cleveland Ladell, Chad Mottola, Pokey Reese, and Brett Tomko. He and his wife, Dot, have two daughters (Terry, Christy), one son (Alan) and four grandchildren.

BOB ZUK, Senior Advisor/Baseball Operations, joined the Reds as as Senior Advisor for Baseball Operations on October 18, 1996. A veteran of over 30 years in professional baseball, Bob spent last season as a special assignment scout and national cross-checker for the Texas Rangers. Respected throughout the baseball community for his ability to evaluate hitters, Zuk will scout hitters at the free agent, minor league, and major league levels. He has been directly responsible for signing players such as Reggie Jackson, Willie Stargell, Darrell Evans and Gary Carter. Bob and his wife, Dolores, have three children: Robert, Laura, Warren.

BRAD KULLMAN, Assistant/Baseball Operations, was promoted to his current position in December, 1995, after joining the Reds in March of that year. Brad assists in all of the Reds' baseball operations departments, including Player Development, Scouting and the Major Leagues. A native of Oxford, Ohio, Brad spent five years with the Class AAA Columbus Clippers before joining the Reds. He is a 1989 graduate of Miami University (Ohio) and received his Master's Degree in sports management from Ohio State University in 1990. Brad and his wife, Pam, have one son (Austin) and reside in northern Kentucky.

1996 SEASON: In his first year ever as a manager, Ray Knight hustled, high-fived and kept his ballclub in contention until late September ...That was no small feat, given the obstacles which Knight confronted, including player injuries, his own bouts with illness, distractions off the field, and an early nine-game losing skid ...Despite it all, both Ray and his club improved, growing stronger as the year progressed ...Knight's greatest triumph may have been that his club battled all season long.

MANAGERIAL/COACHING CAREER: Ray was named manager of the Reds on October 30, 1995, becoming the 44th manager in Reds history since 1900, and only the 22nd in the modern era to assume the role without having prior big-league managing experience ...Named to the Reds coaching staff on May 24, 1993 as bench and hitting coach, Ray assumed added duties as third base coach in 1994, and was named Assistant Manager in 1995.

PLAYING CAREER: Ray played 13 seasons in the major leagues as a third baseman and first baseman, including six years with the Reds ...A 10th-round draft choice of the Cincinnati Reds in the June, 1970 free agent draft, Ray first reached the majors with the Reds in 1974 ...Followed Pete Rose as the regular third baseman in 1979 and earned team MVP honors that season as he hit .318 (third best in the National League) ...Hit .286 (4x14) in the 1979 National League Championship Series vs. Pittsburgh ...Named to the National League All-Star Team in 1980 ...Hit two homers in an inning, including a grand slam, May 13, 1980 vs. the Mets at Riverfront Stadium (5th inning) ...Tied single-season team record with three grand slams in 1980 ...Traded to Houston for Cesar Cedeno in December, 1981 ...Hit .294 in 1982 and .304 in 1983 for the Astros ...Named to the National League All-Star team in 1982 ...Traded to the Mets August 28, 1984 for three players to be named (outfielder Gerald Young, infielder Manny Lee and pitcher Mitch Cook) ...Named National League Comeback Player of the Year by The Sporting News in 1986, when he hit .298 in 137 games for the Mets ...Voted MVP of the 1986 World Series vs. Boston, hitting .391 ...Drove in a run and scored the winning run in New York's memorable three-run, 10th-inning rally in Game 6 ...Had three hits, including a tie-breaking home run in the 7th inning in the Mets' Game 7 win ...Played his final two seasons in the AL ...Signed with Baltimore as a free agent in 1987 ...Traded to Detroit for pitcher Mark Thurmond in 1988 ...Was a broadcaster for ESPN from 1989 until becoming a Reds coach in 1993.

PERSONAL: CHARLES RAY KNIGHT and his wife, golfer Nancy Lopez, live in Albany, GA ...Children: Brooks (6/20/79), Ashley (11/7/83), Erinn (6/26/86), and Torri (10/30/91) ...Graduated from Dougherty High School in Albany, GA in 1970 ...Attended Albany (GA) Junior College.

1997 CINCINNATI REDS

1997 REDS

RHP Jeff Brantley enjoyed his finest season as a professional in 1996, as he became the Reds' single season saves record holder by recording a career high 44 saves. Jeff broke John Franco's team record for saves in a season (39 set in 1988) on September 20 vs. the Cardinals. Brantley has recorded 87 saves in his three seasons with the Reds, ranking him 5th already on the club's all-time saves list. Brantley capped off his tremendous season by earning the prestigious Rolands Relief Man award as the best reliever in the National League.

Brantley In The Community

A tireless worker in the community, Brantley's contributions of his time and financial support have been multifaceted, consistent through the years, and a true reflection of himself. One prominent example of his many community endeavors includes personally overseeing an inner-city baseball league in Jackson, Mississippi in a minority neighborhood where there had not previously been any type of sports program.

As a result of Jeff's efforts, more than 150 children are currently active in the program. More than just providing the funds and equipment necessary to keep the program up and running, Jeff encourages parental involvement, personally selects the coaches and leaders for the league, and makes sure that a part of the experience is providing positive role models.

Jeff is most active in the United Methodist Church. He supports over 40 different ministries in a myriad of ways, including personal speaking engagements and financial support.

For the past nine years, Jeff has led an annual New Year's Eve seminar, speaking to an audience of over 700 teens. The aim is to "break through to a better life" to start the new year. He is also a true supporter of Mt. Salus Christian School, in providing scholarships for children of ministerial students.

Jeff also supports the Mississippi Arts Alliance, the Jackson Symphony, and the Des Arts ministry, acts as the spokesperson for the Governor of Mississippi's "Don't Drink and Drive" campaign, makes numerous visits to Children's Hospital and the Methodist Rehab Center, and runs baseball clinics annually in Pensacola, FL, Clinton, (MS) High School, and Jackson, MS.

Both on and off the field, the Reds are proud to have Jeff Brantley on their side.

Larkin In The Community

In 1991, Barry Larkin started his own charitable organization, named "The Caring Team of Athletes." The organization is devoted exclusively to helping children's charities. The Caring Team has since grown into a national organization, staffed by pro athletes in every major league city, and backed by corporate sponsors. Barry's dream of raising both awareness and money to help children has become a thriving reality.

Millions of dollars have been raised each year, most through in-game batting promotions, e.g., sponsors contributing set amounts of money for each hit recorded by a "Caring Team Athlete." The Caring Team's impact is felt right now, in the form of health care and other much-needed services, by thousands of children and families across the country. That's one reason why Barry has received the prestigious Roberto Clemente Award (1993) for positively representing baseball.

1996 SEASON IN REVIEW

'96 REVIEW

Barry Larkin made history on September 22 of last season in game one of a doubleheader vs. the St. Louis Cardinals, when he ripped his 30th homer of the season off the Redbirds' Donovan Osborne. Already having surpassed the 30-stolen base plateau, Larkin became the very first major league short-stop in the history of the game to hit 30 homers and steal 30 bases in the same season.

1996 Reds Miscellaneous

1996 Month-by-Month Recap

APRIL: 9-16 (.261 AVG., 5.55 ERA)

The baseball world suffered a stunning blow just seven pitches into the 1996 season, when Opening Day umpire John McSherry collapsed on the field just behind home plate, and died of a massive heart attack ...McSherry was starting his 26th season as a National League umpire ...Due to the tragedy, Opening Day between the Reds and Montreal Expos was postponed until the next day, when the Reds opened the season with a 4-1 victory ...On a happier note, April saw John Smiley's 1,000th career strikeout (4/3 vs. Mtl.), a seven-steal game for the Reds (4/8 vs. NY), and veterans Eric Davis and Joe Oliver both slamming their first home runs since rejoining the Reds (4/14, G1) ...April saw RHP Jeff Brantley coming off the disabled list (following surgery to repair a broken sesamoid bone in his right foot) to strike out the side in his very first outing 4/6 at Philadelphia; INF Barry Larkin belting the first two Reds' homers of the season, while slamming a pair of extra-inning, game-winning dingers 4/5 at Philadelphia, and 4/15 at Chicago; and C Eddie Taubensee ranking among the league's top hitters with a .348 batting average ...The Reds finished the month of April in 5th place in the NL Central division, just 3.0 games behind front-running Chicago.

MAY: 10-12 (.217 AVG., 4.62 ERA)

The month of May had plenty of Reds' heroes, with Eric Davis leading the pack ...Eric "The Red Hot" caught fire on the first road trip of the month, bashing grand slams in back-to-back games May 4 and 5 vs. the Giants, while driving in nine runs during the three-game set ...Davis finished May batting .370 (20x54) with 25 RBI, and would bat .300 from May 2 through the end of the season ...May 7 saw the Reds break up a pitching duel with a pair of 12th-inning homers off L.A. relief ace Todd Worrell (Eric Anthony's tied the game, then Eric Davis' won it), and on May 23, the Reds rallied for six in the 9th for a come-from-behind 7-5 win at Colorado ...In addition, May saw a pair of "firsts" for the Reds: Barry Larkin hit an inside-the-park home run (5/28), and after 28 games, manager Ray Knight pencilled down the same starting eight players for a second time ...RHP Jeff Brantley enjoyed a solid month, as he spun a 1.98 ERA in 13.2 innings, while recording six saves, and RHP Jeff Shaw continued his emergence as the club's set-up man, posting a 1.80 ERA in 10 games (2 ER, 10.0 IP) ...The Reds finished May in 4th place, 4.0 games behind 1st-place Houston.

JUNE: 17-11 (.271 AVG., 3.54 ERA)

The month of June brought headlines both on and off the field for the Reds ...The club earned their fourth series sweep of an opponent 6/10-12, taking three games from the Padres in San Diego ...OF Reggie Sanders recorded a straight steal of home (6/22 at NY), and some personal milestones were achieved ...RHP Jeff Brantley recorded his 100th career save 6/10 vs. the Padres, and OF Eric Davis belted his 1,000th major league hit 6/19 at Houston ...The Reds also got some solid pitching performances, as RHP Roger Salkeld tossed the club's first complete-game shutout of the season 6/16 vs. the Expos (W 7-0, 4 H, 5 SO), and RHP Mark Portugal blanked the Phillies 6/24 on four hits in a 7-0 Reds' win ...Off the field, Reds' CEO Marge Schott ceded her control of the team's day-to-day operations, and club controller John Allen took the helm as "interim Managing Executive" June 12 ...Allen experimented with the first of four "Discount Days" June 26, and it worked, as 12,000 extra fans took advantage of the bargain prices ...Finally, on June 29, the fans were treated to two real rarities, as pitcher Mark Portugal cracked two hits in the same inning, and General Manager Jim Bowden swept up with the grounds crew during their 5th-inning field maintenance ...The Reds moved into 3rd place in the NL Central, just 2.5 games behind the 1st-place Cardinals.

JULY: 16-12 (.260 AVG., 3.65 ERA)

For the second straight year, the Reds' mound staff received a severe setback during July ...The 1995 season saw Jose Rijo leave the field due to elbow trouble, and in 1996, it was Pete Schourek's turn ...Schourek had his season come to an end on 7/17 after having left elbow surgery ...And the elbow troubles weren't restricted to pitchers either -- 1B Hal Morris was injured after getting hit on the right elbow by a flying piece of broken bat 7/1 at St. Louis ...But there was good news elsewhere: SS Barry Larkin had a pair of two-homer games (7/5 at Chicago and again 7/23 at Philadelphia), and RHP Kevin Jarvis threw a three-hit shutout at the Pirates 7/13 ...RHP Dave Burba amazed the Pirates by blasting his first career homer on 7/14, then did the very same thing five days later, this time at Pittsburgh 7/19 ...July saw Eduardo Perez join his fabled father, Tony, as part of the 5th father-son duo to homer at Riverfront/Cinergy Field ...And the month ended on a very odd note when Chris Sabo, at the plate with a borrowed bat, was ejected when the stick was discovered to be corked ...The Reds remained in 3rd, 2.5 games out of 1st behind the Cardinals.

AUGUST: 15-17 (.269 AVG., 5.16 ERA)

Priceless "role players" came through in August -- they had to, as the Reds were scheduled for 32 games in 31 scorching summer days ...OF Thomas Howard went six straight games with at least two hits, and on 8/14, Howard saved a ballgame with his 9th-inning throw home, then won it with a 13th-inning base hit ...Howard finished the month batting .356 (36x101) with 12 RBI ...RHP Jeff Shaw, on his way to a 1.75 ERA for August, escaped two bases-full jams during a narrow victory at San Francisco 8/5 ...And the next day, 8/6, it was Jeff Branson's turn, as he hit a dramatic, game-winning home run with two outs in the 9th ...Cincinnati hitters finished August on a high note, scoring 18 runs on 8/29 (Joe Oliver a grand slam and career-high 7 RBI), then racking up a season-high 22 runs two days later (8/31) vs. the Marlins ...The Reds finished August 6.0 games behind the Astros in 4th place.

SEPTEMBER: 14-13 (.247 AVG., 3.42 ERA)

The Reds opened September by unveiling the retired jerseys of Johnny Bench (#5) and Fred Hutchinson (#1), and finished the month with a surge ...1B Hal Morris concluded 1996 with a 29-game hitting streak, the longest in the majors, and the second-longest by a Reds' player this century (Pete Rose 44G, 1978) ...INF Willie Greene exploded in the season's final weeks, earning N.L. Player of the Week honors, and launching three home runs in one game (9/24 vs. Chicago) ...SS Barry Larkin became the first shortstop in history to join the 30/30 club (home runs and stolen bases), and capped the season by bashing two home runs on the season's final day ...In closing, the "closer" Jeff Brantley set an all-time club record by recording his 40th save of the season 9/20 vs. the Cardinals (breaking John Franco's mark of 39 in 1988), and wrapped up a share of the league saves crown and the Rolands Relief Man award with a save (his 44th) on the final day of the season at St. Louis ...The Reds finished 1996 with an 81-81 mark, and have finished at .500 or better in nine of the last 12 seasons.

1996 Season Highlights

KNIGHT CLOSES OUT ROOKIE SEASON: In his first year ever as a manager, Ray Knight hustled, high-fived and kept his ballclub in contention until September ...That was no no small feat, given the enormous obstacles which Knight confronted, including player injuries, his own bouts with illness, distractions off the field, and an early nine-game losing skid ...Despite it all, both Ray and his ballclub improved, growing stronger as the year progressed ...Knight's greatest triumph may have been that his club battled all season -- the team "took on the characteristics of its manager," according to Barry Larkin ...Knight is the club's 44th manager since 1900, and only the 22nd in the modern era to assume the role without having prior big-league managing experience.

LARKIN BLASTS WAY INTO RECORD BOOK: Barry Larkin made history on September 22 of the season in game one of a doubleheader vs. the St. Louis Cardinals, when he ripped his 30th homer of the season off the Redbirds' Donovan Osborne ...Already having surpassed the 30-stolen base plateau, Larkin became the very first major league shortstop to hit 30 homers and steal 30 bases in the same season ...He also earned the distinction of becoming only the second Cincinnati Red to join the 30-30 club (Eric Davis in 1987) ...Larkin went on the finish the 1996 campaign batting .298 with 33 homers and a career high 89 RBI.

"CLOSING OUT" A SOLID CAMPAIGN: RHP Jeff Brantley enjoyed his finest season as a professional in 1996, as he became the club's single season saves leader by recording a career high 44 saves ...Jeff broke John Franco's team record for saves in a season (39 set in 1988) on September 20 vs. the Cardinals, tossing 1.0 scoreless inning in a 4-2 Reds' victory ...Brantley has recorded 87 saves in his three seasons with the Reds, ranking him 5th already on the club's all-time saves list ...He is sure to move into 3rd place all time in 1997, as he is just one save shy of tying both Rob Dibble and Tom Hume on the list (88 saves each) ...During a year in which he posted ERA's under 2.00 in four different months (May 1.98, July 1.64, August 1.80, September 0.75), Brantley capped off his tremendous season by earning the prestigious Rolands Relief Man award as the best reliever in the National League ...Jeff claimed the race with a save on the final day of the season (9/29) at St. Louis, and won it by successfully converting 90% of his save opportunities (44x49).

ONE "HAL" OF A FINISH: When Hal Morris steps to the plate on Opening Day 1997, he will be looking to extend his personal hitting streak to 30 games, thanks to an unbelievable 29-game hitting streak to close out the 1996 season ...Although his streak ended on the final day of the season as far as records go, Morris will be hoping to keep the personal streak alive come next April ...His 29-game rampage (42x113, .372) ranked as the longest in all of major league baseball in 1996, and the second-longest by a Red this century (Pete Rose, 44 games in 1978) ...The streak, which began August 27 at Colorado with a 1x3 performance, was preceded by a 13-game hitting streak August 9-21 (18x55, .327) ...Hal finished the season hitting safely in 46 of his last 48 games in which he had an at-bat (68x190, .358), and leading the club in average (.313), and hits (165), while ranking 3rd in RBI (a career-high 80).

THE COMEBACK KID: Eric Davis was named the 1996 Sporting News Comeback Player of the Year, and he earned it...Following a forced absence from baseball in 1995 and half of 1994 due to a herniated disk in his neck, Davis bounced back in a big way in 1996, returning to the Reds after a five-year absence ...Eric carried the team through much of the first half of the season, batting .281 with 14 homers and 50 RBI at the All-Star break ...After getting off to a slow start in April, Eric exploded in May, batting .370 (20x54) with eight homers and 25 RBI to keep the Reds close in the NL Central division standings ...Eric's season featured grand slams in back-to-back games 5/4 (7th) and 5/5 (7th) vs. the Giants in San Francisco ...He finished the season with 26 homers and 83 RBI, while batting .327 with men in scoring position, and .400 with the bases loaded.

AN UNEXPECTED HERO: By far, the biggest surprise for the Reds in 1996 came in the form of RHP Jeff Shaw ...Shaw, who was signed by the Reds as a free agent on December 31, 1995, was invited to spring training where he impressed the Reds with a 1.53 ERA in 17.2 innings of work ...In his finest season as a pro, Jeff established new career highs in wins (8), appearances (78, T3rd in the NL), innings pitched (104.2), and strikeouts (69) ...Shaw enjoyed a tremendous second half, spinning a 1.96 ERA following the All-Star break, and was virtually untouchable in the month of September, allowing just two earned runs in 20.2 innings - good for an 0.87 ERA ...Jeff finished the season allowing just eight homers (0.69 homers per 9.0 innings pitched).

STRONG SECOND HALF: After suffering through a tough-luck first half, RHP Dave Burba enjoyed a strong second half, going 11-5, with a 3.35 ERA from June 16 until the end of the season ...Burba, who dropped his first eight decisions on the season before earning his first victory 6/20 at New York, pitched well enough to win on several occasions during his first 14 starts ...Burba pitched into the 7th inning three times, and held opponents to two runs or less in six of those 14 outings.

HIGH-OCTANE OFFENSE: Among all National League clubs, only the high-altitude Colorado Rockies scored more runs than the Reds did, as the Reds crossed the plate 778 times ...In addition, the Reds ranked third in both home runs (191, trailing only Colorado & Atlanta) and steals (171, behind Colorado & Houston) ...The Cincinnati offense was in high gear.

MORE GREAT PERFORMANCES: OF Thomas Howard went on a tear in August, collecting at least two hits in six consecutive ballgames ...He batted .607 during that stretch, and also finished the season with 10 triples, second-most in the NL ... INF/OF Lenny Harris helped carry the team in June & July ...With the versatile Harris in their starting lineup, the Reds played at a .720 pace (18-7) from June 1 - August 1, as compared to .500 without him starting (16-16) ...Harris batted .303 during those months, and for the year, he capably played six different defensive positions ...2B Bret Boone led all NL second basemen (again!) with his .991 fielding percentage, and his six errors tied Ryne Sandberg for the lowest total in the league ...But once again, Boone was shunned, as Houston's Craig Biggio walked away with the Rawlings Gold Glove Award.

REDS AMONG LEAGUE'S BEST FROM JUNE 10 ONWARD: Beginning with the game of June 10, Ray Knight and the Cincinnati Reds played 11 games over the .500 mark (59-48, .551) through the end of the season ...That was the fourth-best percentage in the National League over that span -- and the only NL clubs which could match that pace all wound up playing in October ...The top five, starting June 10: STL 59-42, .584; L.A. 57-42, .576; ATL 57-45, .559; CINCINNATI 59-48, .551; S.D. 55-45, .550.

"D-DAY" FOR NATIONAL LEAGUE HITTERS: A major factor in the Reds' second-half surge was their improved pitching ...Following the games of June 6th, the Cincinnati pitching staff closed ranks and for the rest of the season was among the NL's five finest units ...The top five pitching staffs, after June 6: STL, 3.67; L.A., 3.72; MTL, 3.73; ATL, 3.90; CINCINNATI, 3.933; S.D., 3.934.

CINCINNATI REDS HISTORY

REDS HISTORY

Joe Morgan, the Reds' brightest star during the club's back-to-back World Series championships in 1975 and 1976, was honored in both those seasons by being named the National League's MVP. At the time of the award, Joe had become just the second National Leaguer to win the MVP award in consecutive seasons. To this date, only five have been so honored in the NL (Ernie Banks, Joe Morgan, Mike Schmidt, Dale Murphy, and Barry Bonds). Joe was inducted into baseball's Hall of Fame in 1987, and remains the Reds' all-time stolen base leader, with 406 thefts.

History of the Cincinnati Reds

The history of professional baseball begins in Cincinnati. Cincinnati is the home of the very first professional baseball team, and a charter member of the National League. During the 1870s, Cincinnati was home to the famed "Big Red Machine," one of the most dominant teams in the history of sports.

The first professional team of all time was the 1869 Cincinnati Red Stockings. No other club had ever composed its entire roster of paid ballplayers before (i.e., no amateurs at all), and they were sensationally successful. Led by George & Harry Wright, the Red Stockings played their first practice game April 17, 1869 (a 24-15 win), their first official game June 1, 1869 (a 48-14 rout over the Mansfield Independents), and eventually reeled off 130 consecutive games without a loss before falling to the Brooklyn Atlantics in June of 1870.

In 1876, the National League was founded and the Red Stockings were charter members. The Reds left the league from 1881-1889 (due largely to the fact that the league would not permit the sale of beer in the ballpark), but returned in 1890, and have been in the NL ever since.

The turn of the century saw one of the most colorful men ever associated with the Reds take control of the club. August "Garry" Herrmann was team president from 1902 until 1927, when he was forced to retire due to declining health. Herrmann was at the helm on April 11, 1912 when Redland Field (later known as Crosley Field) was officially dedicated. The beloved old ballpark would serve as the Reds' home until 1970, hosting a total of 4,543 games.

Harry Wright

A host of famous players paraded through the Herrmann regime. Frank "Noodles" Hahn was a durable, standout pitcher, and OF Cy Seymour won the Reds' first batting championship when he hit .377 in 1905, a mark which still stands in the Cincinnati record book.

Later came Edd Roush, an all-time great center fielder, and Heinie Groh, the famous third baseman who used a bottle-shaped bat. They formed the nucleus of Cincinnati's first pennant winner in 1919, and went on to beat the Chicago White Sox in the World Series.

During the roaring '20s, Reds' players such as Eppa Rixey (who still holds the club record with 179 pitching victories) and Bubbles

Hargrave (the first catcher ever to win a batting title) kept Cincinnati in the running. But after Garry Herrmann resigned control of the team in the late 1920s, the Depression crippled the team's owners and limited the Reds' success on the field as well.

Powell Crosley Jr., the famous radio tycoon, purchased the team in 1934. He did so mostly for civic purposes, as it was strongly rumored that the Cincinnati franchise might be moved, and Crosley felt that the city needed a major league baseball team.

One of the people who helped convince Crosley was Larry MacPhail, the Reds' colorful general manager. MacPhail, one of the early promoters in baseball, opened up a new era for the sport when the Reds became the first big-league team ever to play at night. Lights were installed at the newly-renamed Crosley Field, and on May 24, 1935, the Reds and Phillies squared off in the first night game. Even with a very limited number of evening games on the schedule, Cincinnati crowds soared from their previous levels.

Two years later, a new chapter opened in Cincinnati as Warren Giles was named General

Powell Crosley Jr.

Crosley Field

Manager. Although the Reds finished last in Giles' first season, the team began to move up in 1938 -- they jumped to fourth place, and pitcher Johnny Vander Meer fired no-hitters in consecutive starts. By 1939, the club had become the league's best, winning back-to-back pennants in 1939 and 1940. Cincinnati captured the World Series in 1940, taking an exciting, seven-game series from the Detroit Tigers (helped by a remarkable performance from their 40 year old "coach-turned-catcher," Jimmy Wilson).

Some of the greatest names in Reds' history were on those teams. Paul Deringer, Bucky Walters and Johnny Vander Meer were talented pitchers. 1B Frank McCormick, catcher Ernie Lombardi and Walters all won Most Valuable Player awards. The manager of the squad was Hall of Famer Bill McKechnie.

World War II and age caught up with the Reds during the 1940s, and the club began rebuilding in the late '40s and early '50s. Ewell "The Whip" Blackwell became the first pitcher to pitch in six straight All-Star games, and muscular 1B Ted Kluszewski was signed off the Indiana University campus.

Warren Giles left the Reds in 1951 when he became president of the National League. His successor, Gabe Paul, assembled a powerful hitting club in the mid-'50s. Cincinnati nearly won the pennant in 1956, losing by just two games to Brooklyn, but the fans fell in love with this team. The Reds tied the NL record for most team home runs (221), and hit the million mark in attendance for the first time. Skipper Birdie Tebbetts was crowned Manager of the Year.

Manager Fred Hutchinson took command of the Reds in 1959, and in '61 they startled many "experts" by winning the NL pennant. OF Frank Robinson, who had been Rookie of the Year in 1956, was the league's Most Valuable Player, and OF Vada Pinson nearly won the batting title. Under the popular Hutchinson, who died of cancer in 1964, the Reds averaged over 90 wins per season from 1961-64.

Rumors again spread in 1966 that the Reds would leave Cincinnati. They were silenced though, when a group of businessmen, led by Francis L. Dale, purchased the Reds and pledged allegiance to the city with a 40-year lease, thus assuring construction of a new stadium. As the '70s opened, Bob Howsam was the General Manager, the brand new Riverfront Stadium was about to open, Sparky Anderson had just been named team's manager ...and the Reds were on the threshold of the greatest decade in their history.

Fred Hutchinson

THE GLORIOUS 1970s -- ERA OF THE "BIG RED MACHINE"

From 1970, when the team won its first Western division title, through 1979, Cincinnati won more games and more titles than any other major league team. The Reds averaged 95 wins per year during this decade of dominance, and compiled a .593 winning percentage. It was a team of offensive power, defensive excellence, and remarkable overall team consistency.

Reds' fans saw a total of 12 championships in the '70s: six division crowns (1970-72-73-75-76-79); four National League pennants (1970-72-75-76); and back-to-back World Championships (1975 and '76). Assembled by Bob Howsam, the "Big Red Machine" built a national following, and attracted 21 million fans to their home games during the 10-year period.

At the heart of the team were four individuals -- Johnny Bench, Joe Morgan, Pete Rose and Tony Perez -- who were totally different in makeup, style and personality, but who all shared the common goal of team victory. Surrounding them were Gold Glove SS Dave Concepcion, Gold Glove CF Cesar Geronimo, speedy OF Ken Griffey Sr., and slugging George Foster (an outfielder who averaged 32 home runs and 107 RBI over a 7-year period).

The Reds so dominated the National League that their players won six MVP awards in an eight-year span. Bench won in 1970 and '72, when he led the NL in both homers and RBI; Rose in 1973, when he led the league in hitting for the third time; Morgan in both 1975 and '76 as the brightest star of the Reds' back-to-back World Champion clubs; and Foster in 1977, when he set club records for both home runs (52) and RBI (149). Tony Perez, while never league MVP, earned an unmatched reputation for clutch hitting -- Bench and Perez ranked "one-two" in the majors for RBI during the 1970s.

To borrow a phrase, the 1970s belonged to the Cincinnati Reds.

1980 AND ONWARD -- THE REDS SINCE THEIR "MACHINE" DAYS

The '80s opened on an odd note, when the '81 Reds missed the playoffs despite having the best record in major league baseball. Due to an exceptional "split season" format that year, the Reds' close second-place finishes in both the first and second halves of the year meant that (despite an unsurpassed overall record) they didn't qualify for post-season play.

Pete Rose

Late 1984 saw the return of hometown hero Pete Rose, this time in the role of player/manager. With Rose at the helm, the Reds finished second in four consecutive seasons (1985-88).

The frustration of these four straight near-misses was eased by two very special days in Reds' history. On September 11, 1985, Rose became baseball's all-time hit king, passing up the legendary Ty Cobb when he collected career hit #4,192 before a roaring Cincinnati crowd. And three years later, September 16, 1988, lefty Tom Browning threw the only perfect game in team history; 27 men up, 27 men down.

1990 was a year Cincinnati fans will long remember. Under manager Lou Piniella and the league's Executive of the Year Bob Quinn, the Reds became the first NL team ever to occupy first place from "wire to wire." After taking a hard-fought Championship Series from the Pirates, the pennant-winning Reds stunned the heavily favored Oakland A's (and in fact, stunned all of baseball) with a four-game World Series sweep. Led by Series MVP Jose Rijo, a record-setting hitting performance by OF Billy Hatcher, and a bullpen which simply overmatched their foes, the Reds were World Champions once again.

Baseball adopted a three-division format in 1994, and the Reds dominated the newly-created NL Central, winning the division in each of its first two years.

In closing, it must be noted that Reds' baseball has always been more than just wins and losses. After more than 125 thrilling years, it's clear that Reds' baseball is about people.

-- It's the over 1,500 different players who have worn the Cincinnati uniform, 1346 of them since 1900.

-- It's the fabulous fans, the over 90.8 million Reds' loyalists who have come to the park since attendance records were first kept in 1901.... The fans who signal the coming of spring each year with a big crowd on Opening Day in Cincinnati.

-- It's the voices of people like Waite Hoyt, Marty Brennaman, Red Barber, Gordy Coleman, Al Michaels and Joe Nuxhall, people who have brought the games to life over the airwaves.

-- It's the colorful characters who have steered the team, from Lee MacPhail to Marge Schott to Garry Herrmann.

A third century for the Cincinnati Reds now beckons both the team and its fans, and a new ballpark also awaits on the not-too-distant horizon. The current Reds' team, led, appropriately, by a homegrown hero in shortstop Barry Larkin, looks forward to a very exciting future.

Important Dates In Reds History

June 1, 1869	In the first game ever played by a professional baseball team (all paid players, no amateurs), the Cincinnati Red Stockings beat the Mansfield Independents, 48-14.
June 14, 1870	After 130 consecutive games without a loss, Cincinnati falls for the first time: Brooklyn Atlantics 8, Red Stockings 7 in extra innings.
October 6, 1880	Cincinnati is expelled from the National League, due in part to their selling beer in the ballpark. The club returned to NL for good in 1890.
October 15, 1892	Pitching for Cincinnati, Charles "Bumpus" Jones fires a no-hitter in his very first big-league game.
June 21, 1901	Harley "Doc" Parker is pummeled for 26 hits and 21 runs (both National League records which still stand) in his only Reds' outing.
April 11, 1912	Redland Field (later known as Crosley Field) is officially dedicated. The Reds beat Chicago in the first game, 10-6.
May 2, 1917	In baseball's greatest pitching duel, Cincinnati's Fred Toney and Jim "Hippo" Vaughn of the Chicago Cubs both hurl no-hitters through nine innings. The Reds break up Chicago's no-hitter and win in extra frames, 1-0.
October 9, 1919	Cincinnati claims its very first World Championship, winning the World Series over the Chicago White Sox five games to three (the World Series was "best five out of nine" that year).
Sept. 29, 1920	The Reds' 1919 title is tarnished, as several members of the White Sox are suspended for allegedly "throwing" the Series. Cincinnati insists their club would have won no matter what; Chicago's team is derisively nicknamed the "Black Sox."
February 4, 1934	Radio tycoon Powel Crosley Jr. buys the Reds, thus assuring that the team, which had been hit hard by the Depression, will stay in Cincinnati.
May 24, 1935	The first night game in major league history is played at Cincinnati's Crosley Field. The Reds beat the Philadelphia Phillies 2-1, before 20,422 fans.
January 26, 1937	Crosley Field's playing surface is under 21 feet of water due to local creek flooding. Remarkably, the ballpark is made game-ready in time for Opening Day in April.
June 15, 1938	Johnny Vander Meer becomes the only major league pitcher ever to throw back-to-back no-hitters (his first one came June 11), as he blanks the Dodgers 6-0, in the first night game ever played at Brooklyn's Ebbetts Field.
October 8, 1939	Temporarily dazed by a home-plate collision, Reds' catcher Ernie Lombardi watches helplessly, unable to retrieve the nearby baseball, as the Yankees' Joe DiMaggio circles the bases for a 10th-inning, World Series run.
August 3, 1940	Reds' catcher Willard Hershberger commits suicide in mid-season, the only big leaguer ever to take his own life.
October 8, 1940	After winning their second NL pennant in a row, Cincinnati grabs the World Championship, defeating the Tigers, four games to three in the World Series.
June 10, 1944	Fifteen-year-old Joe Nuxhall takes the mound against St. Louis, becoming the youngest player ever to appear in a major league ballgame.
June 22, 1947	Ewell "The Whip" Blackwell, en route to 16 straight pitching victories, falls two outs shy of back-to-back no hitters; he settles for one no-hitter followed by a two-hit shutout.
August 18, 1956	Reds set a team record by blasting eight homers in one game, victimizing the Milwaukee Braves. For the season, Cincinnati clouted 221 dingers, tying the National League record.

Important Dates In Reds History, Continued

Sept. 26, 1961	Under manager Fred Hutchinson, the Reds clinch the National League pennant, their last flag at Crosley Field.
December 9, 1965	Reds' OF Frank Robinson is dealt to the Orioles for RHP Milt Pappas, OF Dick Simpson and RHP Jack Baldschun.
April 30, 1969	The Reds' Jim Maloney no-hits the Houston Astros...
May 1, 1969	...and the Astros' Don Wilson then turns the tables, by no-hitting the Reds the following day.
July 14, 1970	In one of the first games played at Riverfront Stadium, Pete Rose wins the All-Star game for the National League, barreling over Cleveland catcher Ray Fosse for the deciding run.
Nov. 29, 1972	The Reds deal 1B Lee May, 2B Tommy Helms and INF Jim Stewart to Houston, in exchange for 2B Joe Morgan, RHP Jack Billingham, INF Denis Menke, and OF's Cesar Geronimo and Ed Armbrister.
October 21, 1975	In one of the most memorable World Series games ever, game six of the '75 Fall Classic goes to the Red Sox, after Boston's Bernie Carbo and Carlton Fisk connect for late-inning homers. The Reds bounce back and win the World Series the following day.
October 21, 1976	Cincinnati's Big Red Machine wins its second straight World Championship. Under manager Sparky Anderson the Reds sweep both the Philadelphia Phillies (3 straight) and New York Yankees (4 straight) in post-season play.
July 31, 1978	Pete Rose extends his hitting streak to 44 consecutive games, a mark topped only by Joe DiMaggio's record of 56. Rose would be held hitless the following night in Atlanta, ending his NL-record string.
October 4, 1981	The Reds finish with the best record in the major leagues, but don't make the playoffs. Due to an unusual "split-season" format, the Reds do not qualify for post-season play.
Sept. 11, 1985	Pete Rose breaks Ty Cobb's all-time career hits record by ripping a single off the Padres' Eric Show at Riverfront Stadium for career hit number 4,192. The single came in the very first inning of the game.
Sept. 16, 1988	Lefty Tom Browning throws the only perfect game in Cincinnati Reds' history, stifling the L.A. Dodgers, 1-0.
Sept. 29, 1990	The Reds clinch the Western Division title, becoming the only NL team ever to occupy first place "wire to wire."
October 20, 1990	Cincinnati sweeps the heavily favored Oakland A's, four games to none, to claim the World Series.
Sept. 1, 1996	The Reds unveil displays saluting their only two retired uniform numbers: manager Fred Hutchinson (#1) and catcher Johnny Bench (#5).
January 4, 1997	Reds' organization hosts first ever RedsFest at Cincinnati Convention Center. More than 11,500 fans were in attendance for the event, which featured past and present Reds players, coaches and managers signing autographs, posing for photos, and taking part in question and answer panels.

Cincinnati Club Nicknames Over the Years

The Cincinnati franchise began play in 1869 as the Red Stockings due, not surprisingly, to the color of their game hosiery. The club has undergone a few name changes over the years, first shortening the name to Reds, then briefly during the 1950's, being known as the Redlegs.

Opinions vary as to exactly when "Red Stockings" became shortened to just "Reds," but team histories refer to the club as Reds when the National League was founded in 1876, and by 1882, the more formal Red Stockings name was no longer in favor. In fact, instead of "Red Stockings," fans of that era might have been more likely to refer to the Cincinnati team as the "Porkopolitans," a reference to the city's (and the club hierarchy's) interest in the meat-packing industry.

During the 1950's, the era of Joseph McCarthy and the Red scare, the term "Red" was seen in a very different light. Thus during the seasons of 1953-58, the Cincinnati ballclub was called the Redlegs, so as not to give any appearance of an affiliation with Communism.

Reds All-Time Roster Since 1900

Since 1900, 1,369 players have appeared with the club in at least one major league season.

Reds All-Time Coaches

The coaches listed below for years 1900-1935 were garnered from Total Baseball's master list of coaches. However, Total Baseball is still seeking to upgrade their coach list for the years 1900-1921, thus some omissions are possible during that time period.

Reds Retired Uniform Numbers

Johnny Bench #5

Born: December 7, 1947

Cincinnati's uniform #5 belongs to perhaps the greatest catcher to ever play in the major leagues. The standard by which all other catchers are measured, Johnny Bench ended his 17-year storied career in 1983, after earning two MVP Awards, 10 Gold Gloves, and 14 trips to the All-Star game. Bench was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1989.

Bench began his career with a bang, earning Rookie-of-the-Year honors in 1968. Able to control a game on both sides of the plate, he ended his career with a .267 average, and 389 homers (327 as a catcher which stands as a record for NL catchers).

On the Reds' all-time batting list, Bench ranks first in homers, and RBI (1,376), second in runs (1,091), extra-base hits (794), and total bases (3,644), third in, hits (2,048), and doubles (381).

Johnny appeared in 22 National League Championship Series games, and 23 World Series games. Bench earned World Series MVP honors in 1976 when the Reds swept the NY Yankees, four games to none. He twice led the league in home runs (1970 with 45, and 1972 with 40), and three times in RBI (1970 with 148, 1972 with 125, and 1974 with 129).

Fred Hutchinson #1

Born: August 12, 1919 - Died: November 12, 1964

Fred Hutchinson was a popular and successful manager of the Cincinnati Reds. Hutch's 466 managerial victories and .543 winning percentage rank him among the best managers ever to wear a Cincinnati uniform. The Reds exceeded the 90-win mark in three of his six seasons at the helm, and in 1961, they took the National League pennant.

But the joy of a first-place finish was matched only three years later by the sadness of Hutch's illness and early death. The courage, class and determination that Fred exemplified all his life were all the more evident during his battle with cancer.

Hutch stepped down as Reds' manager in 1964, and died that November.

The following year, Hutch's uniform (#1) became the first one in Cincinnati Reds history to be retired.

Today, Fred Hutchinson's legacy lives on in the world-rekknowned Cancer Research Center that bears his name, and in The Hutch Award. It is given annually to a major league ballplayer who "best exemplifies the character and fighting spirit of the late Fred Hutchinson ...who overcomes any form of adversity." Past winners include Ray Knight, Ron Oester, Bobby Tolan, and Johnny Bench.

Riverfront Stadium / Cinergy Field Highlights

*Riverfront Stadium opens on June 30, 1970, as 51,050 fans attend to see the Reds host the Atlanta Braves. Atlanta wins, 8-2, as Hank Aaron hits the stadium's first home run.

*The Reds post their first win in Riverfront Stadium's second game (July 1, 1970), downing the Atlanta Braves, 9-2. Tommy Helms becomes the first Red to homer at the new park.

*Just two weeks after the stadium opened, Riverfront is the site for baseball's All-Star game (July 14, 1970). The National League scores a dramatic 5-4 victory in 12 innings, as Pete Rose crashes into American League catcher Ray Fosse to score the winning run on Jim Hickman's RBI single. Rose was joined in the mid-summer classic by teammates Johnny Bench, Jim Merritt, Tony Perez, and Wayne Simpson.

*Tony Perez becomes the first player to homer into the upper level Red Seats at Riverfront with a blast into left field off the Mets' Jim McAndrew on August 11, 1970.

*The Reds edge Pittsburgh, 3-2 on October 5, 1970 to complete a three-game sweep of the Pirates in the National League Championship Series and win their first league pennant since 1961.

*Chicago's Ken Holtzman pitches the first no-hitter at Riverfront on June 3, 1971, winning 1-0 over the Reds.

*Philadelphia's Rick Wise no-hits the Reds for a 4-0 win on June 23, 1971. Wise also hits two homers in the game.

*The Reds score two runs in the bottom of the 9th inning to beat the Pirates, 4-3 in the 5th and deciding game of the NLCS on October 11, 1972. Johnny Bench ties the game with a homer off Dave Giusti. George Foster scores the winning run on Bob Moose's wild pitch.

*Hammerin' Hank Aaron ties Babe Ruth's all-time home run record with a 1st inning, three-run homer off Jack Billingham on Opening Day, 1974 (April 4) for career home run #714.

*Pete Rose singles off Montreal's Steve Rogers for career hit #3,000 on May 5, 1978.

*Tom Seaver becomes the first Reds' pitcher to throw a no-hitter at Riverfront, beating the Cardinals, 4-0 on June 16, 1978.

*Tom Seaver records career strikeout #3,000, fanning Keith Hernandez of the St. Louis Cardinals on April 18, 1981.

*Johnny Bench homers off Houston's Mike Madden on "Johnny Bench Night" at Riverfront Stadium September 17, 1983. It was the 389th and final homer of his career.

*Pete Rose debuts as Reds' player/manager on August 17, 1984. Rose leads the Reds to a 6-4 win over the Cubs, going 2-4 with two RBI, including an RBI single in his first at-bat.

*Pete Rose becomes baseball's all-time hits leader on September 11, 1985, with a single to left-center field off San Diego's Eric Show for career hit #4,192.

*The All-Star game returns to Riverfront Stadium on July 12, 1988. The American League edges the National League, 2-1. Danny Jackson, Barry Larkin, and Chris Sabo represent the Reds.

*Tom Browning becomes the first pitcher in Reds' history to throw a perfect game, when he retires all 27 Dodgers he faces for a 1-0 victory on September 16, 1988.

game, when he retires all 27 Dodgers he faces for a 1-0 victory on September 16, 1988.

- Eric Davis becomes the first Red since Frank Robinson in 1959 to hit for the cycle as he singles, doubles, triples and homers on June 2, 1989 vs. the Padres.
- The Reds score 14 runs on 16 hits in the bottom of the 1st inning in their 18-2 win over Houston on August 3, 1989.
- The Reds edge the Pirates, 2-1, in the 6th and final game of the 1990 NL Championship Series on October 12, for their first NL pennant since 1976.
- Billy Hatcher sets a World Series record with seven consecutive hits, going 3x3 in Game one (October 16, 1990) and 4x4 in Game two (October 17) vs. Oakland.
- The Reds defeat the Los Angeles Dodgers and phenom pitcher Hideo Nomo, 10-1 in game three of the Division Series October 6, 1995. The victory sends the Reds to the National League Championship Series vs. the Braves.
- Opening Day 1996 turns tragic, as long-time National League umpire John McSherry collapses behind home plate just seven pitches into the game. McSherry is rushed to University Hospital, where he passed away due to a massive heart attack.
- The Reds make it official on Sunday, September 1, 1996, when the club, in a pre-game ceremony, unveils the retired uniform numbers of former catcher Johnny Bench and manager Fred Hutchinson on the left field wall of Cinergy Field. It marks the first time in the stadium's history that retired uniform numbers are displayed.
- Riverfront Stadium is renamed Cinergy Field on September 9, 1996.
- St. Louis Cardinals' shortstop Ozzie Smith makes his final visit to Cincinnati, and was honored in a pre-game ceremony Friday, September 20, 1996.
- The Reds' Barry Larkin becomes the first shortstop in major league history to join the prestigious 30-30 club (30 homers and 30 stolen bases in the same season) when he belts his 30th homer of the season on September 22, 1996 in game one of a doubleheader vs. the St. Louis Cardinals.
- Cinergy Field takes on a "field-lift," as new artificial surface is put in place in early March of 1997. It marked the first the time the artificial turf has been replaced since prior to the start of the 1988 season.

Paul Derringer, who spent nine seasons (1934-1942) pitching in a Reds' uniform, was a four-time 20-game winner for the club, including a 25-win season in 1939 (25-7). The backbone of the Reds' pennant-winning clubs in 1939 and 1940, Derringer led the Reds in games pitched five times, games started six times, and strikeouts six times. In his 15 professional seasons, He compiled a 223-212 (.513) record, with a 3.46 ERA in 579 games (445 games started).

One Perfect Night

On September 16, 1988, LHP Tom Browning tossed the only perfect game in Cincinnati Reds history, when he retired all 27 batters faced in a 1-0 Reds' victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

It was only the 14th perfect game (9.0 innings or more) in major league history, just the 3rd in modern National League history, and the first no-hitter by a Red since Tom Seaver blanked the Cardinals on June 16, 1978 (4-0).

Browning's perfect game capped off an incredible season in which he posted an 18-5 record, including a 16-2 mark after June 6.

The "Golden" Years

Defensive excellence was an important cog in Cincinnati's "Big Red Machine" clubs of the 1970's. The Reds won 25 Gold Glove awards combined during that decade, led by Johnny Bench, who won eight by himself.

The Reds showed remarkable strength up the middle defensively. For four consecutive seasons (1974-77), Cincinnati swept all four Gold Glove trophies at catcher (Bench), shortstop (Dave Concepcion), second (Joe Morgan), and center field (Cesar Geronimo).

REDS IN POST-SEASON

The Reds went wire-to-wire in 1990, and capped off their tremendous season with a four-game sweep of the Oakland Athletics in the World Series. With timely hitting and strong pitching, the Reds shocked the baseball world with their total domination of the A's. Jose Rijo led the pitching attack, as he went 2-0 in the Series, with an 0.59 ERA in 15.1 innings. With his performance, Rijo became only the third Red in club history to be awarded the World Series MVP trophy.

1997 Reds Minor League Managers, Coaches and Instructors

Dave Miley - Manager - Indianapolis AAA

Dave Miley has spent his entire 17-year pro baseball career in a Reds' uniform. After seven seasons as a minor league catcher, he has spent the last nine as a coach, instructor and manager, including a stint on the Reds' ML coaching staff in 1993. The 1997 season will be his 2nd at AAA Indianapolis. Dave's clubs have finished first (1st or 2nd-half) during each of his first seven seasons as a manager. He led the 1996 Indianapolis club to a 78-66 mark, and the American Association finals, and in 1995 at Chattanooga, he was named double-A Manager of the Year by Baseball

America. Miley, 35, boasts a lifetime managerial record of 583-401 (.592).

Mark Berry - Manager - Chattanooga AA

Mark Berry, 34, has reached post-season play in four of his five years as a manager. In 1996, he was named Manager of the Year in the Southern League in his first season as a skipper at the AA level. The Lookouts dominated the 2nd half of the '96 campaign (48-22, .686), and went all the way to the league's finals. His lifetime managerial record is 371-321 (.536). Prior to managing, Mark played six seasons in the Reds' organization as a catcher & third baseman, and also served as a coach for two years (1990-91).

Phillip Wellman - Manager - Burlington A

Phillip Wellman enters his 6th season as a minor league manager, and his 2nd in the Cincinnati Reds' system. The 35-year-old Wellman took the helm at Class A Winston-Salem of the Carolina League last year, and led the Warhogs to a 74-65 record and a Carolina League stolen-base crown (219 thefts in just 139 games). Before coming to the Reds' organization, Wellman managed elsewhere in the minors for four years, spent four years as a hitting instructor in the Braves' chain, and also spent four minor league seasons as a player.

Barry Lyons - Manager - Charleston (WV) A

The Reds and their Charleston (WV) affiliate welcome former big-league catcher Barry Lyons in 1997. Lyons recently finished his playing career, and made a successful managerial debut last summer. He was named Manager of the Year in the independent Big South League after leading the Columbia (TN) Mules to a 2nd-half title and 40-31 (.563) mark. Lyons' playing career included seven ML seasons (.239 lifetime average, primarily with Mets) and a successful 1994 season with the Reds' Indianapolis club (.309 average and a Triple-A league championship).

Derrel Thomas - Manager - Billings Rookie

Derrel Thomas joins the Reds in 1997 as manager of the club's rookie-league affiliate at Billings, MT. A 15-year veteran of the major leagues, Thomas, 46, began his coaching career in 1987 as manager of the independent Boise Hawks of the Northwest League, and also has coached at Leuzinger (CA) High School, the Reno Silver Sox in the California League, Dorsey (CA) High School, Los Angeles City College, and Sanoma County of the independent Western League. Derrel was selected by the Astros as the 1st selection in the 1969 draft. He batted .249 lifetime, with 43 homers, 470 RBI and 140 stolen bases for the Padres, Giants, Dodgers, Expos, Angels and Phillies.

Grant Jackson - Coach - Indianapolis AAA

Grant Jackson, 54, oversaw the American Association's best pitching staff in 1996, as his Indians' hurlers led the league in both ERA and shutouts, while finishing a close second in strikeouts. It will be the fifth year as a Reds' coach for Grant, two of which (1994-5) were spent on Cincinnati's ML staff. He also coached for eight seasons with other organizations. During his 18 years as a major league relief pitcher, Jackson had an 86-75 record, and was also a perfect 3-0 in 13 post-season games (7 LCS, 6 World Series).

Jim Thrift - Coach - Indianapolis AAA

Jim Thrift is in his fourth season as coach for the AAA Indianapolis Indians, and fourth overall in the Reds' organization. Jim, 34, began his coaching career in 1986 with Pittsburgh's Gulf Coast League club, then went on to manage the Pirates' Florida instructional team in 1987. Jim has also managed Princeton in 1988, Peninsula in 1989, and Kingsport in 1990. He spent two seasons (1991-92) as manager of the Mets' single-A Pittsfield club. In 1993, he was a coach in the Royals' organization. He and his wife, Michelle, have three children (Ryan, Audrey, and Brandon).

Mack Jenkins - Coach - Chattanooga AA

Mack Jenkins enters his 2nd season as pitching coach with AA Chattanooga, 8th overall in the organization as a pitching coach. In 1996 under Jenkins, Chattanooga led the league in saves and ranked 2nd in winning pct. Mack, 32, pitched professionally for Sarasota in 1986, Billings in 1987, and Greensboro and Cedar Rapids in 1988. Following his playing career, Mack served as a pitching coach at Billings in 1990-91, Cedar Rapids in 1992, and Charleston (WV) from 1993-95. Mack, and his wife Delight, live in Chattanooga. They have two children: Corinne and Payton.

Mark Wagner - Coach - Chattanooga AA

Mark Wagner will join Mark Berry and the AA Chattanooga Lookouts for the 1997 season. Mark spent last season managing the Reds' rookie-league club at Princeton (WV). Mark spent nine seasons in the major leagues, primarily with Detroit and Texas, while compiling a .243 lifetime average. Wagner, 43, spent four seasons (1991-94) managing and coaching in the Tigers' minor league system, before joining the Reds in 1996. He has two children: Mark and Megan.

Derek Botelho - Coach - Burlington A

Derek Botelho heads to Burlington, Iowa for 1997, to coach the Reds' new affiliate in the Midwest League. The 40-year-old Botelho is starting his 7th campaign as a pitching coach in the Reds' organization (1991-92 at Charleston, 1993-96 at Winston-Salem). He pitched professionally from 1976-89, including major league stints with Kansas City (1982, 8 G) and the Chicago Cubs (1985, 11 G). Derek combined on a shutout for K.C. in his major league debut.

Andre Rabouin - Coach - Charleston (WV) A

Andre Rabouin enters his second season as pitching coach for the Reds' single-A affiliate at Charleston (WV), and his 11th season overall as a minor league coach. Prior to joining the Reds, Andre spent four seasons coaching the Toronto Blue Jays Gulf Coast League club (1992-95), following five years working in the Kansas City Royals' minor league system. He was signed by the Reds in 1972 as a free agent, but spent most of his professional career pitching in Mexico.

Terry Abbott - Coach - Billings Rookie

Terry Abbott, 42, is entering his 9th season as a minor league pitching coach, and his 8th in the Cincinnati system. He has coached at every level from Rookie to Double-A. In 1997, he returns to Billings where he celebrated Pioneer League titles in both 1992 and 1993. Prior to entering the pro coaching ranks in 1989, Abbott had a two-year pitching career (Braves' system), earned a Masters degree in physical education from Jacksonville (AL) State University, and served as a high school baseball coach for nine years. He and his wife Anita have one son: Chris.

Donnie Scott - Minor League Field Coordinator

Donnie enters his 2nd season as the Reds' minor league field coordinator. Following his retirement as a player, he joined the managerial ranks in 1992, after being named skipper of the Reds' rookie-league club at Billings. In four seasons as manager of the Mustangs, he compiled a 201-91 (.688) record, while leading the Mustangs to three consecutive Pioneer League Championships from 1992-1994. He also was named P.L. Manager of the Year in 1993. The 35-year-old former catcher spent parts of six seasons in the majors, appearing for Texas, Seattle and Cincinnati. Donnie and his wife, Debbie, have two children (David and Dana).

Bill Doran - Infield/Baserunning Instructor

Cincinnati native Bill Doran enters his 3rd season in the Reds' farm system as infield/baserunning coach, after rejoining the club in 1995. Bill, 38, hit .266 during his 12-year ML career, which included stops in Houston (1982-90), Cincinnati (1990-92), and Milwaukee (1993). His finest season came in 1987, when he rang up 16 homers and 79 RBI, while leading NL second basemen with a .992 fielding pct. A graduate of Cincinnati's Mt. Healthy High School, Bill played college ball at Miami University in Oxford, OH. He and his wife, Lori, have three children (Dana, Amy, and Ryan).

George Foster - Outfield/Hitting Instructor

One of the greatest sluggers in Reds' history, George Foster returned to the organization in the fall of 1996. He works with Reds' prospects throughout the Cincinnati farm system. Foster hit 348 home runs during his 18-year ML career, with his best seasons coming with the Reds (1971-81). In 1977, Foster earned NL MVP honors when he set Reds' single season records for both homers (52) and RBI (149). From 1976-80, Foster averaged 35 homers and 116 RBI. He has twice as many upper deck home runs (6 into the "red seats") as any hitter in Riverfront/Cinergy Field history.

Mike Griffin - Pitching Coordinator

Mike Griffin enters his 2nd season as Reds' minor league pitching coordinator, and 8th overall in the Reds' system. Prior to assuming his current duties, he spent three seasons as pitching coach for AAA Indy (1993-95). Griffin, 39, pitched 14 years in pro ball, including ML stops with the Yankees, Cubs, Padres, Orioles, and Reds. He appeared in 67 ML games. Mike enjoyed a fine minor league career, highlighted by earning Pitcher of the Year honors in 1977, when he led the Western Carolina League with 17 wins. Mike and his wife, Denise, have two children: Kim and Brad.

Jim Hickman - Hitting Coordinator

Jim Hickman enters his 10th season as the Reds' minor league hitting coordinator. A 13-year major league veteran, Jim played from 1962-74, mainly as an outfielder and first baseman. With major league stops in New York (NL), Los Angeles, Chicago (NL), and St. Louis, Hickman, 59, ripped the RBI single in the 1970 All-Star game which sent Pete Rose into his famous game-ending collision at home plate with catcher Ray Fosse. Jim also enjoyed a three-homer game for the Mets in 1965. He and his wife, Nita, have four sons (Jim Jr., Bill, Joe, and Mike.)

1996 Minor League Review

1996 Minor League Recap

The 1996 minor league season saw both of the Reds' two top farm clubs (AAA Indianapolis and AA Chattanooga) earn a berth in their respective post-season finals. The AAA Indians beat Buffalo in the opening round of the playoffs, only to lose to Oklahoma City in the American Association finals.

The AA Lookouts also won their opening round playoff vs. Memphis, but were beaten in the finals by Jacksonville ...Single-A Winston-Salem narrowly missed the Carolina League playoffs after finishing the season with a 74-65 record, and Single-A Charleston (WV) suffered through a tough season, posting a 58-84 record in the South Atlantic League.

The Reds' six minor league clubs combined to post a 342-363 record on the season.

1996 #1 Draft Selection

JOHN OLIVER - Outfielder - Lake Lehman (PA) High School

The Cincinnati Reds made Pennsylvania prep John Oliver their 1st round selection (25th selection overall) in the 1996 June free agent draft. A member of the USA TODAY All-USA baseball team, Oliver, an outfielder, batted .604 with 11 homers and 43 RBI in his senior season at Lake-Lehman (PA) High School. In his final three seasons of prep ball, Oliver batted .574 with 14 homers and 88 RBI. The 6-3, 185-pound Lehman, PA native spent his first pro season at rookie-level Princeton. Oliver was signed by Reds' scouting supervisor, Bo Trumbo.

Indianapolis Indians - AAA

(78-66, 2nd place in American Association)

The Indians finished a strong second in the regular season, and beat first-place Buffalo in the opening round of the American Association playoffs before losing to Oklahoma City in the finals. Indy's team MVP was INF Eduardo Perez, son of Cincinnati Reds' legend Tony Perez. Eduardo finished 4th in the league in both RBI (84) and runs (84), while leading the club with 21 homers. Also fueling the Indy offense were OF Curtis Goodwin (a league-leading 40 SB) and OF Keith Mitchell (among lg. leaders with both a .300 average & .402 on-base percentage).

Indianapolis led the league in team ERA (3.53) and shutouts (13), while finishing a close 2nd in strikeouts (Ok. City 943, Indy 942). RHP Jerry Spradlin spun an 0.86 ERA in relief -- both Spradlin and the early-season closer, RHP Scott Service, saved 15 games. Catcher Brook Fordyce called 11 of the club's 13 shutouts, while hitting .275 and blasting 16 home runs. At mid-season, the Tribe moved into a spectacular new downtown stadium named Victory Field.

League Leaders: Curtis Goodwin (40 stolen bases)

Post-Season All-Stars: Eduardo Perez

Ranked by BASEBALL AMERICA In American Association: Goodwin (Best Baserunner, Fastest Baserunner), SS Pokey Reese (Best Infield Arm, Best Defensive Shortstop), LHP Gabe White (Best Control).

Chattanooga Lookouts - AA

(81-59, 33-37 first half, 48-22 second half in Southern League)

Under the command of Southern League Manager of the Year Mark Berry, Chattanooga dominated the season's second half, going 48-22 (.686). In post-season play, the Lookouts beat Memphis in the playoffs' first round before losing in the finals to Jacksonville. It was the fourth time in five years that Mark Berry has piloted his club to the league finals.

3B Aaron Boone, the brother of Reds' 2B Bret Boone, set a Southern League record with 44 doubles, finished second in the league with 158 hits, and tied for third with his 95 RBI. Boone was joined on the league's leader boards by OF Cleveland Ladell (4th with 31 steals), catcher Paul Bako (10th with a .294 average) and 1B Ray Brown, who ranked among the league's top five in batting (.327), slugging (.533) and on-base percentage (.413).

The mound staff was headed by RHP Curt Lyons, voted the Southern League's Most Outstanding Pitcher after going 13-4 with a 2.41 ERA and a league-leading 176 strikeouts. Teammate Brett Tomko was right behind with 164 K's, giving the Lookouts the league's "one-two" strikeout duo. In the bullpen, RHP Domingo Jean led the loop with 31 saves, and durable righthander James Nix went 7-2 with 11 saves, while working a staff-high 62 games.

League Leaders: Boone (at-bats, 548; doubles, 44); Jean (saves, 31; relief points, 91); Lyons (strikeouts, 176; strikeouts to 9.0 IP ratio, 11.18); Nix (games, 62); Reed (walks, 91).

Post-Season All-Stars: A. Boone, Lyons, Berry (Mgr. of the Year).

Named To BASEBALL AMERICA's Southern League All-Star Team: A. Boone, Lyons.

Winston-Salem Warthogs - A

(74-65, 37-33 first half, 37-32 second half, in Carolina League)

The Warthogs narrowly missed the Carolina League playoffs, remaining in the pennant race until the very last games in each half of the season. The club stole their way into contention by swiping 219 bases, which was far and away the league's highest total. Winston-Salem was led by OF Decomba Conner, who made the league's top five in both stolen bases (4th with 33) and home runs (5th with 20), and batted .281. Catcher Justin Towle led the loop in on-base percentage (.416), while posting a slugging percentage of .450. Finally, 1B Marlon Allen knocked in 82 runs, tops on the team and fourth-best in the Carolina League.

On the mound, RH starter Ben Bailey arrived in Winston-Salem at mid-season and proceeded to go 7-4 with a 2.85 ERA the rest of the way (16 games, 15 starts). Likewise, RH reliever Adam Bryant received a mid-year promotion to the Warthogs, and he chipped in with a 2.38 ERA and 8 saves over 28 outings.

League Leaders: Caruthers (starts, 28-T1st); Eddie (games, 137); Towle (walks, 93; on-base pct., .416).

Post-Season All-Stars: Conner.

Ranked by BASEBALL AMERICA in Carolina League: Towle (Best Defensive Catcher), RHP Koppe (Best Control).

Charleston Alley Cats - A

(58-84, 29-41 1st half, 29-43 2nd half, in the South Atlantic League)

The Alley Cats' offense was led by the capable duo of OF Christian Rojas and INF/OF Mike Hampton. That tandem finished "one-two" on the Charleston ballclub in the key categories of hits, runs, homers and RBI. OF Steve Claybrook led the way on the basepaths, stealing 37 bags. And 1B Stephen Larkin (brother of Reds' all-star Barry Larkin) was a very welcome mid-season addition, as he led the team with a slugging percentage of .399. In another mid-year change, Donnie Scott took the helm as manager, replacing Tommy Thompson.

On the pitcher's mound, RHP Dwayne Cushman recorded 15 saves and had a 2.10 ERA. RH reliever Scott Wright was not far behind him, spinning a 2.70 ERA and allowing just one home run all year (66.2 IP). Among the starters, lefty Justin Atchley fanned 78 batters while issuing just 23 walks, and spun a 3.46 ERA.

Mid-Season All-Stars: Rojas, Claybrook, catcher James Davis.

League's Best by BASEBALL AMERICA: James Davis (Best Defensive Catcher).

Billings Mustangs - Rookie

(23-49, 11-25 1st half, 12-24 2nd half, Pioneer League)

The Mustangs had a pair of hitters who terrorized the Pioneer League. 2B Wylie Campbell, fresh out of the prestigious University of Texas baseball program, batted .371, fourth-highest in the league. Campbell ranked third in on-base percentage (.473), tied for third in runs (69 in 70 games played), fourth in hits (96), and he also swiped 24 bases. Meanwhile, DH Darron Ingram launched 17 home runs, tying him for the league lead, and his 56 RBI led the Billings ballclub.

Former Reds' catcher Bill Plummer took over as team manager at mid-season, replacing Matt Martin. 1996 was the first season in five years that the Mustangs did not make the playoffs.

League Leaders: Ingram (home Runs, 17 T1st); Shepard (shutouts, 1 T1st); Smith (games finished, 1st 22).

Post-Season All-Stars: Campbell

Princeton Reds - Rookie

(28-40, 4th place in Appalachian League)

Princeton's leading hitter was LF Brandon O'Hearn, who blasted 13 home runs (2nd in the league), with 52 RBI and a .532 slugging percentage (both of which ranked 4th in the lg.). 32 of O'Hearn's 65 hits went for extra bases. And Cincinnati native Jeremy Skeens, an outfielder from nearby Lakota H.S., went 19-for-21 in the base-stealing department.

On the mound, hard-throwing RHP Buddy Carlyle fanned 42 hitters in 46.1 IP; RH closer Roberto Giron also averaged a strikeout per inning (44 K, 40.2 IP) while racking up a team-high seven saves. Righthander Eric LeBlanc's 4-1 record (and 51 strikeouts) helped earn him a late-season promotion to Charleston.

League Leaders: Horne (complete games, 3 T1st); Skeens (triples, 7 T1st)

Appalachian League All-Star Team Selections: O'Hearn.

REDS MEDIA INFORMATION

Johnny Bench, shown here surrounded by members of the media during the 1976 World Series, played a vital role in the Reds' four-game sweep of the New York Yankees in the fall classic that season. After batting .533 (8x15), Bench was named the Series' MVP. His four runs scored, eight hits, two homers and six RBI during the Series led the Reds, as the club snatched their second consecutive World Series championship.

Media Information

PHONE NUMBERS

You may contact the Cincinnati Reds Public Relations office at (513) 421-4510, ext. 250, 251, or 252.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

1997 Cincinnati Reds media credentials will be issued only to accredited media members. Reds season credentials will be issued to those media outlets that will cover the Reds on a daily basis only. To request media credentials, please contact Kelly Lippincott in the Reds Public Relations office at (513) 421-4510, ext. 250. The Reds require a 24-hour notice for all daily credential requests. Credential requests should be sent via fax (513) 421-7342 or by mail (Cincinnati Reds Public Relations, 100 Cinergy Field, Cincinnati, OH 45202) on company letterhead from the sports director or producer. All weekend credential requests must be made by 3:00 pm on the Friday prior. Under no circumstances are media credentials to be transferred from person to person without the express written permission and approval of the Reds Public Relations office. Violation of this policy may result in informing the National League office of the violation, dismissal of the media member from Cinergy Field, and confiscation of the violator's media credential for the remainder of the 1997 season.

MEDIA CREDENTIAL PICK-UP

Upon confirmation of credential request, media members may pick up credentials at Gate B at Cinergy Field. Gate B is located on the stadium's west side on street level (lowest level). Gate B is also the media entrance to the stadium.

FIELD ACCESS

Only properly credentialed media members may gain access to the playing field. The field entrance is located directly behind home plate, near the media entrance at Gate B. Media members must clear the field no later than 45 minutes prior to game time. Under no circumstances are credentialed media members permitted to seek autographs on the field of play or in the clubhouse. Violation of this policy may result in informing the National League office of the violation, dismissal of the media member from Cinergy Field, and confiscation of the violator's media credential for the remainder of the 1997 season.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS:

Only properly credentialed media members may gain access to the clubhouse. Both the Reds and visiting team clubhouses are located on Level 1 (Field Level) of Cinergy Field. The Reds dugout is located on the first base side, and may be accessed via the playing field only. Media members are not permitted to access the dugout or clubhouse via the dugout tunnel. Media members are not permitted in the training room, players' lounge, or equipment area in the Reds' clubhouse. The clubhouse is open to properly credentialed media members three-and-a-half hours prior to the start of the game, and closes 45 minutes prior to game time. Following the game, the clubhouse will open approximately 10 minutes after the final out.

PRESS BOX

The Reds press box is located on Level 5 of Cinergy Field, directly behind home plate. The press box is accessible from the field level by using the press elevator directly adjacent to the press entrance near Gate B. The press box is open three-and-a-half hours prior to game time. The press dining room, located just past the main press area, is open two hours prior to game time. A buffet dinner is available to all credentialed media members, at a cost of $6.50.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

All photograph positions are located at each end of the home and visiting dugouts. Special requests to shoot in areas other than the dugouts must be cleared through the Reds Public Relations office. Photographers are not permitted on the field during the game at any time.

GAME NOTES AND STATISTICS

Reds game notes and statistics will be available in the main press box prior to the start of the game.

Major League Rules of Interest

Calculating the "Magic Number": Determine the number of games to be played by the team in the lead. Add one to that number. Subtract from that figure the number of games ahead in the loss column from the closest opponent.

Determining Earned Run Average: Multiply earned runs by nine, then divide total by innings pitched.

Determining Batting Average: Divide total hits by total at-bats.

Determine Slugging Percentage: Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total number of at-bats.

Determining On-Base Percentage: Divide hits + walks + hit by pitch, by at-bats + walks, + hit by pitch + sac flies.

Determining Fielding Percentage: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

The Winning Pitcher: The starting pitcher will be credited with the win only if the pitcher has pitched at least five complete innings and his team not only is in the lead when he is replaced, but remains in the lead the remainder of the game. EXCEPTION: The "must pitch five complete innings" rule in respect to the starting pitcher, shall be in effect for all games of six or more innings. In a five-inning game, credit the starting pitcher with a game won only if he has pitched at least four complete innings and his team not only is in the lead when he is replaced, but remains in the lead the remainder of the game. When the starting pitcher does not meet the preceding criteria and more than one relief pitcher is used, the victory shall be awarded on the following basis:

(1) When, during the tenure of the starting pitcher, the winning team assumes the lead and maintains it to the finish of the game, credit the victory to the relief pitcher judged by the official scorer to have been the most effective.

(2) Whenever the score is tied, the game becomes a new contest insofar as the winning and losing pitcher is concerned.

(3) Once the opposing team assumes the lead, all pitchers who have pitched up to that point are excluded from being credited with the victory except the current pitcher.

(4) The winning relief pitcher shall be the one who is the pitcher of record when his team assumes the lead and maintains it to the finish of the game. EXCEPTION: Do not credit a victory to a relief pitcher who is ineffective in a brief appearance, when a succeeding relief pitcher pitches effectively in helping his team maintain the lead. In such cases, credit the succeeding relief pitcher with the victory.

Earning a Save: Credit a pitcher with a save when he meets all of the following conditions:

(1) He is the pitcher that finished the game won by his team.

(2) He is not the winning pitcher.

(3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:

a. He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or

b. He enters the game, regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batters he faces), or

c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

Assists: An assist shall be credited to each fielder who throws or deflects a batted or thrown ball in such a way that a putout results, or would have resulted except for a subsequent error by an fielder. Only one assist and no more shall be credited to each fielder who throws or deflects the ball in a run-down play which results in a putout, or would have resulted in a putout, except for a subsequent error.

Consecutive Game Hitting Streak: A consecutive game hitting streak shall not be terminated if the player's plate appearance(s) results in a base on balls, hit batter, defensive interference or sac bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sac fly and no hit. Consecutive game hitting streaks do not carry over from season to season.

Consecutive Game Playing Streak: A consecutive game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one-half inning on defense or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from the game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirement of this rule, the streak shall continue.

Suspended Games: All performance in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on the original date of the game.

Rain Delays: Once a game has been temporarily delayed by rain, NL umpires have been instructed to wait at least one hour and 15 minutes before calling the game. They shall wait at least 45 minutes for a second delay and 30 minutes for all subsequent delays.

National League Curfew: There is no curfew in the National League. The game is in the hands of the umpires once it has started.

Major League Year: 172 days constitutes a full year in the Major Leagues.

Rookie Status at The Major League Level: To be considered a rookie, a player must not have more than 130 at-bats, or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues during a previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a major league roster during the major league 25-player limit (excluding time in the military).

Medical Glossary

AC Joint (Acromioclavicular joint): Joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Abduct: Movement of any extremity away from the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an abductor muscle.

Abrasion: Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.

Abscess: An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.

Adhesion: Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.

Aerobic: Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.

Anabolic Steroids: Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormones).

Anaerobic: Exercise without the use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercise.

Anaphylactic Shock: Shock that is caused by an allergic reaction.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL): A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Anterior Talofibular Ligament: A ligament of the ankle that connects the fibula (lateral ankle bone) to the talus. This ligament is often times subject to sprain.

Anti-Inflammatory: Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

Arteriogram: A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.

Arthrogram: X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

Arthroscope: An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.

Arthroscopy: A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means for viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

Aspiration: The withdrawal of fluid from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus, such as a syringe.

Asymptomatic: Without symptoms.

Atrophy: To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.

Avascular Necrosis: Death of a part due to lack of circulation.

Avascularity: When controlling bleeding.

Avulsion: The tearing away, forcibly, of a part or structure.

Axilla: The armpit.

Bennett's Fracture: A fracture and dislocation of the base of the first metacarpal, the thumb.

Blowout Fracture: A fracture of the cavity containing the eyeball and its associated muscles that can be a result of a direct blow to the eye or cheek.

Bone Scan: An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labelled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bone injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up by the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

Brachial Plexus: Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae and running down to the shoulder, arm, hand and fingers.

Bruise: A discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of blood into the underlying tissues.

Bursa: A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur, then minimized the friction; for example between a tendon and bone.

C.P.R.: Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation; artificial establishment of circulation of blood and movement of air into the lungs in a pulseless, non-breathing person.

Calcaneofibular Ligament: The ligament that connects the fibula to the calcaneus.

Calf: Large muscle located at the back of the shin that includes the gastrocnemius and the soleus muscles and is connected to the heel by the Achilles tendon.

Capsule: An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.

Cartilage: Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.

CAT Scan: Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data.

Cellulitis: Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.

Cervical Vertebrae: Group of seven vertebrae located in the neck.

Charley Horse: A contusion or bruise to any muscle resulting in intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.

Chondral Fracture: Fracture to the chondral (cartilaginous) surfaces of bone.

Chondromalacia: Roughening of the articular cartilage. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the patella, which can occur in any patellofemoral injury.

Clavicle: The collar bone.

Coccyx: The "tail bone"; a group of four vertebrae that are fused together, located at the terminal end of the spine.

Colles' Fracture: A fracture of the distal end of the radius with the lower end being displaced backward.

Computed Tomography (CT): Method of visualizing the body's soft tissues. Using x-rays with the beam passing repeatedly through the body part, the CT scans while a computer calculates tissue absorption at each point scanned.

Concentric Muscle Contraction: A shortening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to move a resistance.

Concussion: Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe, depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Congenital: Existing before birth; to be born with.

Conjunctivitis: Inflammation of the membrane lining the eyelids and covering the eyeball.

Connective Tissue Theory: Microscopic tissue trauma, thought to be brought on by explosive or ballistic movements.

Contractures: Abnormal, usually permanent contraction of a muscle due to atrophy of muscle fibers, extensive scar tissue over a joint, or other factors.

Contusion: An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Cortical Steroids: Used to suppress joint inflammation.

Costochondral: Cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.

CPM: Constant passive motion devices used in the early stage of knee rehabilitation.

Cranium: Framework of the head consisting of eight cranial bones, 14 bones of the face and the teeth.

Cryokinetics: Treatment with cold and movement.

Cryotherapy: A treatment with the use of cold.

Cyst: Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.

Degenerative Joint Disease: Changes in joint surfaces as a result of trauma.

Dehydration: Loss of body water.

Deltoid Ligament: Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.

Deltoid Muscle: Muscle at top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions to the front, side and back.

Disc, Intervertebral: A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.

Dislocation: Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Distal: Term referencing one anatomical term away from another; for example, the hand is distal to the elbow.

Dorsiflexion: Ankle motion such that the foot and toes are moved away from the ground in an upward fashion.

Dorsum: The back; the back surface of any part.

Dysfunction: Unable to function normally as a body organ or system.

Eccentric Muscle Contraction: An overall lengthening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to control motion performed by an outside force; often times referred to a "negative" contraction in weight training.

Eccymosis: Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.

Ectomy: Suffix connoting surgical removal of the affected part.

Edema: Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body; swelling.

Efferent: Away from, pushing toward the center.

Effusion: Accumulation of fluid, or the knee itself, in various spaces in the body. Commonly, the knee has an effusion after an injury.

Electrical Galvanic Stimulation (EGS): An electrical therapeutic modality that sends a current to the body at select voltages and frequencies in order to stimulate pain receptors, disperse edema, or neutralize muscle spasms among other functional applications.

Electromyogram (EMG): Test to determine nerve function.

Epicondylitis: Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse.

Ethyl Chloride: "Cold spray," a chemical coolant sprayed onto an injury site to produce a local, mild anesthesia.

Etiology: Study of the cause of injury and disease.

Eversion: Action of the ankle turning outward.

Extension: Action of straightening of a joint as achieved by an extensor muscle.

External Rotation: Lateral movement of a joint or extremity to the outside.

Extrinsic: From without.

Femur: Thigh bone; longest bone in the body.

Fibula: Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

Flexibility: The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch forces.

Flexibility Exercise: Exercise performed by a player to passively or actively elongate soft tissue without the assistance of an athletic trainer.

Flexion: Motion of bending a joint as achieved by a flexor muscle.

Fracture: Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.

Glenohumeral: The shoulder girdle; consists of the glenoid capsule, head of the humerus and labrum.

Glenoid: Cavity of the scapula into which the head of the humerus fits to form the shoulder girdle.

Glenoid Labrum: A rim of fibrocartilaginous tissue attached around the margin of the glenoid fossa.

Glycogen: Form in which foods are stored in the body as energy.

Grade One Injury: A mild injury in which ligament, tendon or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or contused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

Grade Two Injury: A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

Grade Three Injury: A severe injury in which tissue has been significant, and in some cases, totally torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual total loss of function.

Groin: Junction of the thigh and abdomen; location of muscles that rotate, flex and adduct the hip.

Hammer Toe: Condition when the first digit of a toe is at a different angle than the remaining digits of the same toe.

Hamstring: Category of muscle that runs from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee and is often times injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility.

Heat Cramps: Painful muscle spasms of the arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolytes.

Heat Exhaustion: Mild form of shock due to dehydration because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat and humidity.

Heat Stroke: Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat resulting in death if not cared for.

Heel Cup: Orthotic device that is inserted into the shoe and worn under the heel to give support to the Achilles tendon and help absorb impacts at the heel.

Hemarthrosis: Accumulation of blood within a joint as a result of an acute injury.

Hematoma: Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Hip Pointer: Contusion to the iliac crest.

Humerus: Bone of the upper arm that runs from the shoulder to the elbow.

Hydrotherapy: Treatment using water.

Hyperextension: Extreme extension of a limb or body part.

Iliac Crest: Lateral edge of the hip; generally the site of a hip pointer.

Induced Erythrocythemia: "Blood doping."

Inferior: Anatomically beneath, lower, or toward the bottom.

Inflammation: The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness and/or loss of function.

Innervation: The distribution/supply of nerve fibers/e impulses to a part of the body.

Internal Rotation: Rotation of a joint or extremity medially, to the inside.

Interosseus Membrane: Uniting membrane between the tibia and fibula that forms a collagenous fibrous tissue. It has two functions; to serve as an origin for many of the muscles of the lower leg, and to transmit stress from the tibia to the fibula.

Intrinsic: Inherent or inside.

Iontophoresis: The use of constant direct current to drive heavy metal ions into and through the skin.

Isokinetic Exercise: Form of active resistive exercise in which the speed of limb movement is controlled by a pre-set limiting machine, such as Cyubex or Biodex.

Isometric Contraction: Muscular contraction in which tension is developed but no mechanical work is done.

Isotonic Contraction: A concentric or eccentric muscular contraction that results in movement of a joint or body part, as in lifting a weight.

"Itis": Suffix connoting inflammation.

Joint Mobilization: Passive traction and/or gliding movements applied to joint surfaces that maintain or restore the joint play normally allowed by the capsule, so that the normal roll-slide joint mechanisms can occur as the player moves.

Labrum (Labrum Glenoidale): The cartilage of the glenoid cavity in the shoulder. A lip-edged or lip-like structure.

Lateral: To the outside of the body.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL): Ligament of the knee along the lateral aspect that connects the femur to the fibula. It provides lateral stability to the joint.

Lesion: Wound, injury or tumor.

Ligament: Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Lumbar Vertebrae: Five vertebrae of the lower back that articulate with the sacrum to form the lumbosacral joint.

Lumbosacral: Region of low back comprised of lumbar and sacral spine.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI): Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc and meniscus injuries.

Manipulation: A passive movement using physiological or accessory motion which may be applied with a thrust or when the player is under anesthesia.

Maximal Aerobic Power (MAX VO₂): The maximal volume of oxygen consumed per unit of time.

Medial: To the inside of the body.

Medial Collateral Ligament: Ligament of knee along the medial aspect that connects the femur to the joint.

Meniscectomy: An intra-articular surgical procedure for the knee by which all or part of the damaged meniscus is removed.

Meniscus: Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

Metacarpals: Five long bones of the hand, running from the wrist to the fingers.

Metatarsals: Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.

Morbidity: An illness or abnormal condition or quality.

Morton's Neuroma: Involves the nerves and is usually the result of a trauma to the foot, causing inflammation and sharp pain, usually between the third and fourth toes.

Morton's Toe: A hereditary condition in which the second toe is longer than the first toe. This can cause mechanical imbalances which produce pain with weight bearing.

Myositis: Inflammation of a muscle.

Myositis Ossificans Traumatica: A benign ossification, usually following severe trauma to a large muscle mass.

Necrotic: Relating to death of a portion of tissue.

Neoprene: Lightweight rubber used in joint and muscle sleeves designed to provide support and/or insulation to the area.

Neuritis: Inflammation of a nerve.

Olecranon Process: Bony projection of the ulna at the tip of the elbow.

Orthotic: Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.

Osteochondritis Dessicans: A piece of bone and/or cartilage loosened from its attachment after trauma and a cause of a lesion.

Osteomyelitis: An inflammatory disease of bone caused usually by infection with streptococcus or staphylococcus.

Paresthesia: Sensation of numbness or tingling, indication of nerve irritation.

Patella: The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as increase the mechanical advantage and force generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.

Patella Tendinitis: Inflammation of the patellar ligament.

Patellofemoral Joint: Articulation of the kneecap and femur.

Pectorals: Chest muscles beneath breast that lead up to the shoulder.

Phalanx: Any bone of the fingers or toes; plural is phalanges.

Phlebitis: Inflammation of a vein.

Phonophoresis: Technique of driving whole molecules of medication with ultrasound.

Plantar: Pertaining to the sole of the foot.

Plantarflexion: Ankle motion such that the toes are pointed toward the ground.

Plica: Fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.

Pneumothorax: Collection of air or gas in the pleural space causing lungs to collapse.

Posterior: At the back part, or rear of the body.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL): A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Progressive Resistance Exercise (PRE): An approach to exercise whereby the load or resistance to the muscle is applied by some mechanical means and is quantitatively and progressively increased over time.

Pronation: In the foot, it is a combination of motions resulting in a position such that the foot is abducted and everted. Foot pronation can be a by-product of an arch problem, leg length discrepancy, or chronically bad running mechanics; can be compromised with the use of an orthotic.

Proprioceptive Neuromuscular Facilitation (PNF): An approach to therapeutic exercise based on the principles of functional human anatomy and neurophysiology.

Proximal: Near the source, nearest any point being described.

Q-Angle: Normal angle of quadriceps relative to the patella. The normal angle for males is 10 degrees.

Quadricep Muscles: A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.

Radiography: Taking of x-rays.

Radius: Forearm bone on the thumb side.

Reconstruction: Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.

Referred Pain: Pain felt in an undamaged area of body away from the actual injury.

Resect: To cut off, or cut out a portion of a structure or organ.

Retraction: The moving of tissue to expose a part or structure of the body.

Rotator Cuff: Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infraspinatus, teres minor and subscapularis.

SC Joint: Sternoclavicular joint; articulation of the collarbone with the sternum.

Sacroiliac: Junction of the sacrum with the hip bone.

Sacrum: Group of five fused vertebrae located just below the lumbar vertebrae of the lower back.

Scapula: Shoulder blade.

Sciatica: Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.

Sciatic Nerve: Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.

Shin Splint: A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

Soft Corn: A corn, softened by moisture, that is found beneath the toes rather than on the upper surface of the toe.

Sorbothane: An energy absorbing polyurethane utilized in some foot orthotics to absorb shock forces of the foot.

Spasm Theory: Muscle soreness induced by exercise; is the result of reduced muscle blood flow, which results in pain.

Spinous Process: A small projection off the posterior portion of each vertebra that functions as an attachment site for muscles or ligaments of the spine.

Spleen: Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.

Spondylitis: Inflammation of one or more vertebrae.

Spondylolisthes: Forward displacement of one vertebra over another below it due to a developmental defect in the vertebrae.

Spondylosis: Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.

Sprain: Injury resulting from the stretch or twist of the joint which causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

Sternum: The breast bone.

Steroids: Any one of a large number of hormone-like substances.

Strain: Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.

Stress Fracture: A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.

Stress X-Ray: A continual x-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum in order to determine joint stability. This is a test utilized in some ankle injuries.

Stretching: Any therapeutic maneuver designed to elongate shortened soft tissue structures and thereby increase flexibility.

Subluxation: Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to its normal position without formal reduction.

Superior: In anatomy, the upper of two parts; toward the top or above.

Supination: Movement of the forearm into a palm-up position.

Synchronous: Moving or operating together at the same rate.

Synovial Fluid: Lubricating fluid for joints and tendons, produced in synovium, or the inner lining of a joint.

Synovitis: Inflammation of the synovial lining of a joint.

Talus: The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.

Target Heart Rate: A pre-determined pulse to be obtained during exercise when circulation is working at full efficient capacities.

Tarsals: Group of six bones of the foot consisting of the calcaneal, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.

Temporomandibular Joint (TMJ): The articulation of the jaw and skull; considered by some to be vital in resolution of injuries throughout the body.

Tendinitis: Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

Tendon: Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

Tennis Elbow: General term for lateral elbow strain.

Thermotherapy: Use of heat to treat a disease or disorder.

Thoracic: Group of twelve vertebrae located in the thorax and articulated with the twelve ribs.

Thoracic Outlet Compression Syndrome: A neuro-vascular disorder of the upper extremity common in throwing.

Tibia: Larger of the two bones of lower leg and the weight-bearing bone of the shin.

Tomograph: A special type of x-ray apparatus that demonstrates an organ or tissue at a particular depth.

Trachea: The windpipe.

Transverse Process: Small lateral projection off the right and left side of each vertebra that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.

Trapezius: Flat, triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.

Triceps: Muscle of the back of the upper arm, primarily responsible for extending the elbow.

Ulna: Forearm bone that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist.

Ulnar Nerve: Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

Ultrasonography: Process by which the reflection of high-frequency sound waves is used to develop an image of a structure.

Valgus: Angulation outward and away from the midline of the body.

Varus: Angulation inward and toward the midline of the body.

Vasoconstriction: Decrease of local blood flow.

Vasodilation: Increase of local blood flow.

"Wind Knocked Out": Syndrome describing a contraction of the abdominal nerve trunk, the solar plexus, as a result of an abdominal contusion.

Zygoma: The cheekbone.

1997 Reds Broadcasters

Marty Brennaman

Joe Nuxhall

George Grande

Chris Welsh

Marty Brennaman and Joe Nuxhall return for their 24th season together on the Reds Radio Network. The Reds Radio Network is one of the largest in professional sports, with 58 affiliates in seven states. The flagship station is WLW (AM 700) in Cincinnati. All regular season games are aired on WLW.

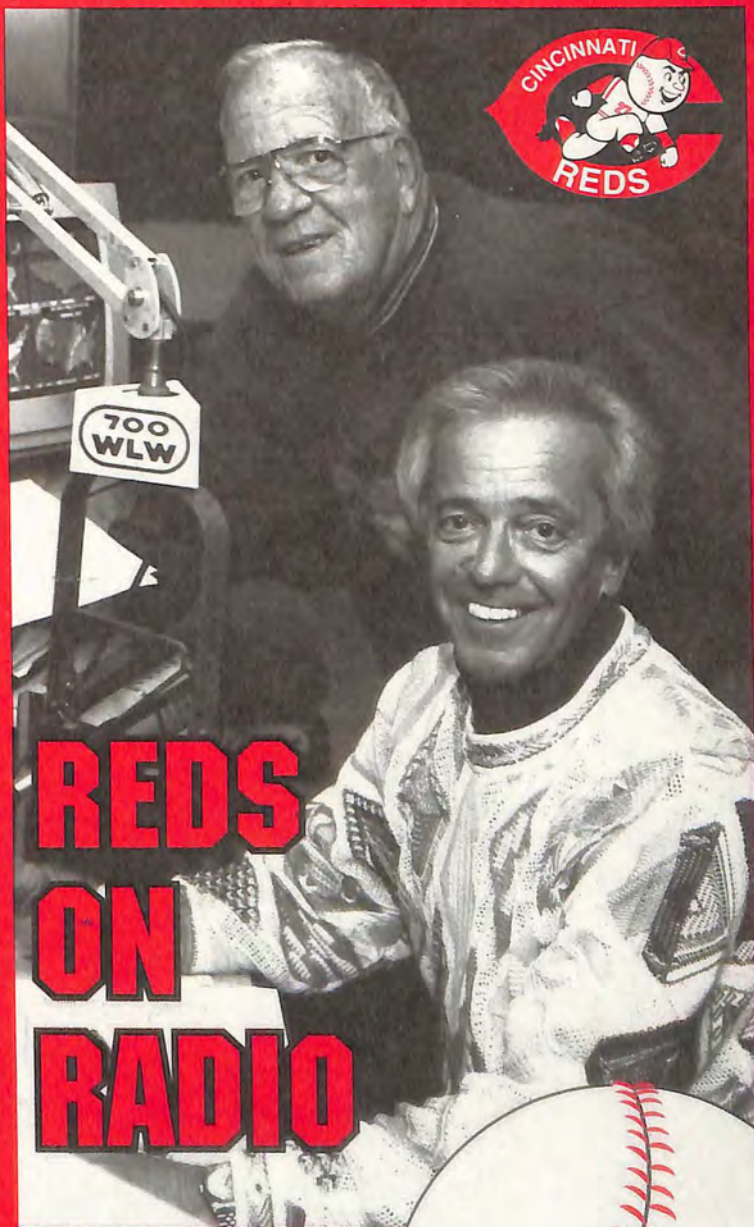

Marty Brennaman, who also calls play-by-play for Reds television broadcasts on SportsChannel, is a 32-year veteran of the broadcast business. Since making his Reds debut in February of 1974, Marty has been named Sportscaster of the Year in Ohio 10 times after earning that honor four times in Virginia. His son, Thom, was named in December of 1995 as the future voice of the Arizona Diamondbacks.

Joe Nuxhall, a former Reds pitcher and member of the Reds Hall of Fame, is in his 31st year as a Reds announcer. Joe pitched for 16 years in the big leagues 1944, 1952-66), including 15 years with the Reds. In 1944, Joe became the youngest player ever to appear in the Major Leagues, at the age of 15 - a record that still stands today. An avid golfer, Joe began his broadcasting career with the Reds in 1967.

For the next two seasons, SportsChannel Ohio will hold the exclusive local cable and telecast rights for Cincinnati Reds baseball. SportsChannel Ohio, managed by Rainbow Programming Holdings, Inc., is part of SportsChannel Regional Network.

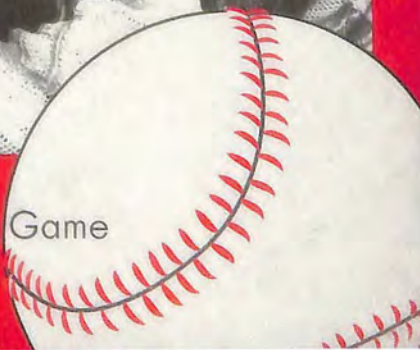

George Grande, a 29-year veteran of the broadcasting business, has been the play-by-play voice of the Reds on SportsChannel since 1993. A native of New Haven, CT, George has covered Major League baseball since 1989. He also anchored the first-ever ESPN SportsCenter telecast on September 7, 1979.

Chris Welsh, who pitched in the big leagues from 1981-83 and 1985-86 with the Padres, Expos, Rangers, and Reds, compiled an overall record of 22-31 with a 4.45 ERA in 122 games. Chris made his debut with SportsChannel in 1994. The 41-year-old native of Wilmington, DE, is also the writer and publisher of a monthly publication called the "Thinking Pitcher".
